

Andersen Press

New Fiction: Autumn 2006/Spring 2007

Title Author	Genre	Age	Pages	Keynote
Agent Amelia Michael Broad	SERIES b/w ills on each page	7-9	144	This is the first of two books to feature Amelia Kidd, the bouncy and resourceful schoolgirl who secretly saves the world from the mad, bad, and dangerous to know. Three stories in one.
Brilliant Billy Simon Hutton	Young Reader b/w ills on each page	7-9	80	Billy can think of hundreds of brilliant stories about dinosaurs but he has trouble writing them down for his school essay – until his hidden talent is discovered by none other than a children’s book author!
The Jackdaw Jinx Kathy Ashford	Young Reader some b/w ills	7-9	128	A fabulously funny new book about a jackdaw, whose thieving ways end up resolving a neighbourhood mystery! Particularly good for boys.
Sophie and the Locust Curse Stephen Davies	SERIES Adventure some b/w ills	7-9	80	In Sophie’s second African adventure, locusts threaten the livelihood of the entire Oudalan Province. An exciting follow-up to the highly original Sophie and the Albino Camel .
Storm Runners Barbara Mitchelhill	Thriller	7-9	192	Two girls find themselves alone on a remote Scottish island - with a laboratory of evil scientists who are prepared to play havoc with the weather to gain control. A great fast-paced whodunit.
Vinny Drake is One Audrey Hopkins	Young Reader some b/w ills	7-9	64	When new boy Vinny Drake turns up at school it’s clear to Flora and her classmates that he’s a vampire. All the clues are there: he has black hair, pointy fangs, and red spots on his collar that look suspiciously like blood . . .
Wicket Chronicles: The Ely Plot Joan Lennon	SERIES Fantasy some b/w ills	7-9	128	In this promising new fantasy series set in medieval times, Pip and his friend Perfect, a gargoyle who comes to life, foil a plot to kill the young King. Fast paced adventure – good for boys.
Message from Mia Sandra Glover	Thriller	9-11		A mysterious text message suggests that Mia was deliberately injured – but who pushed her, and why? Her brother Jack is determined to find out the truth.
Vanishing Village Hazel Townson	Thriller	9-11	80	Matthew is unhappy at exchanging city life for a dull country village. Little does he know that a life-threatening drama is about to unfold.
Don’t Tell Sandra Glover	Thriller	12+	176	An engrossing new murder mystery from popular author Sandra Glover, which is guaranteed to keep readers gripped from the very first page.
Red Fox Running Robin Lloyd Jones	Adventure/ Historical	12+	224	A coming of age, survival tale set in the fascinating, rarely glimpsed world of Victorian Arctic exploration. Full of incredible period detail.
Tell Me Lies Patrick Cooper	Teen Fiction	12+	272	A fascinating new teen drama evoking the passionate soul-searching of the Sixties. A sequel to the highly acclaimed hippy-trail novel, I Is Someone Else .

Established Series

GRK by Joshua Doder A Dog Called Grk Grk and the Pelotti Gang Grk and the Hot Dog Trail	Adventure/ Thriller 5 titles	8+	240 240 208	With help from his unusual dog Grk, 12-year-old Tim fights an evil dictator, chases dangerous criminals and pursues various adventures in exotic locations around the world. Not to be missed!
DAMIAN DROOTH by Barbara Mitchelhill Pop Star’s Wedding Disappearing Daughter How to be a Detective Spycatcher	Adventure/ Detective 6 titles	7-9	64	Damian Drooth is no ordinary boy – he’s an ace detective, with a track record in outsmarting criminal masterminds. All feature drawings by top illustrator Tony Ross. ‘Madcap, cartoon-sketch humour.’ – T. E. S.
TIME-TRAVELLING CAT by Julia Jarman Aztec Sacrifice Egyptian Goddess Roman Eagle Tudor Treasure	History/ Adventure 5 titles	8+	160 128 160 144	An award-winning series featuring Ka, the time-travelling cat, and his owner Topher. In each story they travel to a different period of history. Fast-moving, action-packed adventures that also make history accessible and fun. ‘Incredible’ – The Sun

Andersen Press

New Fiction: Autumn 2006/Spring 2007