SCANDINAVIAN FROM SCRATCH: A Love Letter to the Baking of Denmark, Norway, and Sweden [A Baking Book] by Nichole Accettola

A collection of 75 recipes for luscious cookies, cakes, tarts, pastries, breads, and smørrebrød at the heart of Scandinavian baking traditions. In Scandinavia—comprised of Denmark, Norway, and Sweden—home baking provides a way to find comfort throughout the long, dark winters, drawing warmth from the oven and satisfaction from the meditative and nourishing act.

During her time in Copenhagen, Nichole Accettola combatted winter blues by baking with her Danish mother-in-law, learning how to churn out batches of scrumptious holiday cookies and filling tins with homemade nougats and caramels. She has adapted these recipes for the American kitchen but they are deeply rooted in Scandinavian tradition. In each of the book's six sections, the recipes are listed from simplest to most complex, broken down into easy, comprehensive steps. Infused with Nichole's baking expertise and love for her cherished second home, SCANDINAVIAN FROM SCRATCH is an ode to Scandinavia and an indispensable guide to Scandinavian baking and culture.

Nichole Accettola is a CIA-trained chef and the owner of KANTINE, a Scandinavia-inspired restaurant located in San Francisco serving breakfast, lunch, and snacks with a gorgeous menu of pastries, porridge and jewel-like smørrebrød sandwiches. Her café has garnered glowing reviews from media such as SF Chronicle, Time Out, and Eater.

SANKOFA: West African Recipes and Stories by Eric Adjepong with Korsha Wilson

Sankofa is a Ghanaian Twi word that roughly translates to the idea that we must look back to move forward. In his moving debut cookbook, chef Eric Adjepong practices sankofa by showcasing the beauty and depth of West African food and its indelible impact on the foodways of the African diaspora through the lens of his own deeply personal story.

Born in New York as the son of two Ghanaian immigrants, and traveling to and from Ghana since childhood, Eric's experience of balancing the two parts of his Ghanaian-American identity is both powerful and universal. Through 100 soul-satisfying recipes plus narrative essays, we follow Eric's culinary journey, beginning with traditional home-cooked meals from his mother to creative dishes influenced by his culinary education, which reflects the lasting connections among the cultures of the African diaspora. Full of stunning photography shot in Ghana and remembrances rooted in family, tradition, and love, SANKOFA shows readers how the unsung story of a continent's cuisine can shine a powerful light on one person's exploration of who he is as a chef and a man.

Eric Adjepong is a chef who has been featured on Bravo's Top Chef and Top Chef All-Stars and is currently the host on Food Network's Alex vs. America. He currently lives between Baltimore, Maryland, and New York, with his wife and daughter.

MORE IS MORE: *Get Loose in the Kitchen
by Molly Baz

Learn to cook with confidence and unbridled joy in 100 big, bold, flavorful recipes from New York Times bestselling author Molly Baz. It's time to crank up the heat and lose the measuring spoons because the secret to cooking is hiding in one simple motto: MORE IS MORE. In her bestselling debut cookbook, COOK THIS BOOK, Molly Baz taught the cooking essentials and put her love for mortadella and dill on blast. In MORE IS MORE, she's teaching cooks how to level up their cooking, loosen up in front of that ripping hot pan, and seek deliciousness at all costs. (And yes, there will more mortadella.) MORE IS MORE is a philosophy that encourages more risk-taking, better intuition, fewer exact measurements, and a "don't stop 'til it tastes delicious" mentality.

The recipes in MORE IS MORE are fit for any day of the week and for cooks of all skill levels. Each recipe will teach a technique or flavor combination that takes Molly's maximalist, "leave no flavor on the cutting board" approach. So crank your ovens and grab a fat pinch of salt!

Molly Baz is a food editor and recipe developer whose stories and recipes have been featured in Bon Appétit magazine and who has appeared in the brand's YouTube shows, Making Perfect and Molly Tries.

BELLY FULL: Exploring the Caribbean Cuisine through 11 Fundamental Ingredients
by Lelsey Enston

Trinidadian food writer Lesley Enston brings us into the overlapping histories of the Caribbean islands through their rich cultures and cuisines. The widespread use of the eleven staple ingredients in BELLY FULL (cassava, chayote, coconut, cornmeal, okra, plantains, pumpkin, rice, salted cod, and scotch bonnet peppers) comes from the harrowing history and impact of the Atlantic Slave Trade and colonialism on the islands. The book is organized by ingredient and we get basic knowledge on choosing, storing, and preparing these ingredients as well as a mix of traditional and creative adaptations to dishes.

Lesley shows us what we can learn from the meals born from each island and encourages us to celebrate the delicious differences we find in each island's handling of a specific ingredient. Across the English-speaking Caribbean, "mi belly full" can mean more than just a satisfied stomach, but a heart and soul that's full too. BELLY FULL, with its breadth of stories and recipes, and gorgeous travel photography will leave your stomach and heart more than satisfied.

Lesley Enston is a recipe developer, food writer and tester whose work has been featured in Basically, Bon Appetit and Food52. She is a home cook of Trinidadian descent who married a Haitian, and has lived in three huge Caribbean diaspora hubs—Toronto, New York, London, and back to New York again—and has made it her business to eat her way around the Caribbean in these cities. BRAIDED HERITAGE: Recipes and Stories on the Origin of American Cuisine
by Jessica B. Harris

Through essays, interviews, and more than 100 recipes, Dr. Harris presents American cuisine as a complex braid—an interwoven whole composed of ingredients and dishes from the Indigenous, European, and African people who influenced the food and traditions of the New World. By beginning with a recipe and tracing its origins, we come to understand the heritage of some of America's most treasured dishes.

Accompanying the recipes are stories from a diverse collection of families that help illuminate our understanding of contemporary American cooking and examine how dishes such as clam chowder and Louisiana gumbo became American classics. With recipes ranging from the festive to the everyday, BRAIDED HERITAGE offers a new look at American culinary history.

Jessica B. Harris is the author, editor, and translator of seventeen books, including twelve cookbooks documenting the foods and foodways of the African diaspora. Her IACP Award-winning book, HIGH ON THE HOG: A Culinary Journey from Africa to America (Bloomsbury), has been adapted into a Netflix series. Harris is a professor emerita at Queens College/CUNY in New York and has written extensively for scholarly and popular publications. She served as the culinary consultant for the Smithsonian Museum of African American History and Culture and their lauded restaurant, the Sweet Home Café. She holds lifetime achievement awards from the Southern Foodways Alliance, the Soul Summit, and the James Beard Foundation, which also inducted Harris into the Cookbook Hall of Fame.

IN THE FIELD: *Recipes and Stories of Community, Connection, and Conflict
by Hawa Hassan

Countries dealing with major conflict are rarely portrayed in a well-rounded light by the media—images of disarray and decline saturate their narratives, ignoring the strength, resourcefulness, and ingenuity that arises from having to navigate conflict. In IN THE FIELD, James Beard Award-winner Hawa Hassan brings us into these multi-faceted narratives for eight countries around the world: Afghanistan, Democratic Republic of the Congo, Egypt, El Salvador, Iraq, Lebanon, Liberia, and Yemen.

Each chapter is devoted to a different country and opens with an informative essay on the culture and the foodways written by a local from that area. Recipes follow highlighting indigenous ingredients and share intimate portraits of the people preserving food culture. This collection returns some agency to the people whose stories up until now have been ignored in the media and sheds light on the important work of preserving recipes and food traditions in places of conflict and migration.

Hawa Hassan is a James Beard award winner and culinary triple threat: dynamic chef, TV personality and entrepreneur. MY EVERYDAY LAGOS: *Nigerian Cooking at Home and in the Diaspora
by Yewande Komolafe

Acclaimed chef and food writer Yewande Komolafe celebrates the many cuisines found in Lagos, Nigeria's biggest city, with 75 recipes that mirror her own powerful journey of self-discovery. A-GONG'S TABLE: *Vegan Recipes from a Taiwanese Home [A Chez Jorge Cookbook]
by George Lee

At just nineteen years old, George Lee (aka Chez Jorge on Instagram and TikTok) captivated social media audiences with his brilliant and simple solutions for veganizing the cuisine of his homeland Taiwan. And now, in this collection of more than ninety recipes, including breakfasts, small eats, soups, big sharing plates, and traditional festival dishes, George reveals all the tips and tricks for making outstandingly flavorful plant-based versions of the Taiwanese dishes you already, or soon will, know and love.

George spent the first eighteen years of his life eating meat, growing up on Taiwanese home cooking and street foods. His journey to going plant-based and connecting with his ancestral roots all ties back to his a-gong (grandfather). Following his a-gong's death, George's family turned to Buddhism to walk through their grief of losing him and abstained from eating meat for forty-nine days. For George, this practice turned into a life change. He wasn't ready to part with his favorite meat dishes, so he came up with veganized versions without sacrificing flavor or texture.

A-GONG'S TABLE is not only a celebration of the forms vegan Taiwanese food has taken on, but also a reimagination of what it can become.

George Lee is a Taiwanese cook, food writer, and self-taught photographer and videographer. He is the creator of the Chez Jorge food blog and social media accounts. He is a graduate of Le Cordon Bleu Paris and is currently studying biochemistry at University of California, Berkeley.

ITALIAN WINE: *The History, Regions, and Grapes of an Iconic Wine Country
by Shelley Lindgren and Kate Leahy

In this comprehensive guide to the "indie-rock" wines of Italy, you'll discover what modern Italian wine looks like today: the makers shaping the industry, the styles in grape-growing, and the history that paved the path for this current movement. Uncover grapes thought to have gone extinct, such as Coda di Pecora and Pallagrello Bianco.

These are the untold stories of how ancient winemaking techniques and the complex network of mountain ranges, volcanos, and microclimates that make up Italy's terrain have influenced one of the greatest shifts in modern Italian wine-making. Through the rise of unfamiliar grapes, the advent of the DOC system, a changing climate, and the diversity of the country's wines, it's easy to see what makes modern Italian wines so exciting. ITALIAN WINE is an exploration of the best wines of today, and how they came to be.

Shelley Lindgren is the wine director and partner of A16 and SPQR, restaurants which have long been known for championing Italian wines made with lesser-known grapes. She is the author of A16 FOOD + WINE (Ten Speed Press, 2016), the IACP cookbook of the year. Kate Leahy is a San Francisco chef-turned-journalist. She has written ten books, including WINE STYLE (Ten Speed Press, 2021) and A16 FOOD + WINE. Her work has appeared in publications from CNN's Parts Unknown to EatingWell.

COOK IT WILD: *Sensational Prep-Ahead Meals for Camping, the Cabin, and the Great Outdoors
by Chris Nuttall-Smith

Enjoy incredible meals in the great outdoors with this savvy, fun camping cookbook of 80 easy-to-make, ridiculously delicious recipes. Food writer and camping aficionado Chris Nuttall-Smith shows readers how to bring the stress-free simplicity of meal-prepped cooking to the great outdoors.

Dividing each recipe by prep location, at home and at camp, his ingenious approach gets most (if not all!) of the cooking done before a trip even begins. Even if your camping agenda brings you to the wilderness of your own backyard, you'll want to make these recipes for friends and family. With some simple prep and a bit of knowledge, COOK IT WILD proves that cooks and campers of every level can have the most spectacular campfire meals.

PRAISESONG FOR THE KITCHEN GHOSTS: *Recipes and Stories from Five Generations of Black Mountain Cooks
by Crystal Wilkerson

Years ago, when O. Henry Prize-winning writer Crystal Wilkinson was baking ajam cake, she felt her late grandmother's presence. She soon realized that she was not the only cook in her kitchen; There were an abundance of ancestors stirring, measuring, and braising with her, her kitchen ghosts: five generations of Black women who made a life, a legacy, and a cuisine.

Part food memoir, part cookbook, PRAISESONG FOR THE KITCHEN GHOSTS weaves fiction with historical records, memories, and interviews to present a unique culinary portrait of Black Appalachians. Forty recipes rooted deep in the past yet full of contemporary flavor are brought to vivid life through stunning photography and beautiful illustrations, portraying the experience and history of Black Appalachians through their voice, spirit, and foodways. She found these stories woven into her apron pockets, floating inside the steam of hot mustard greens, and tucked into the sweet scent of clove and cinnamon in her kitchen. Crystal conjures up her ancestors every time she cooks, honoring the mothers who came before her, the land that housed generations of her family, and the untold heritage of Black Appalachia.

Crystal Wilkinson, Kentucky's Poet Laureate, is the award-winning author of PERFECT BLACK, THE BIRDS OF OPULENCE, and BLACKBERRIES, BLACKBERRIES (all published by the University Press of Kentucky). She is the recipient of a 2022 NAACP Image Award for Outstanding Poetry and a 2021 O. Henry Prize, among others. She has received recognition from the Yaddo Foundation, Hedgebrook, The Hermitage Foundation, and others. She currently teaches at the University of Kentucky in the Creative Writing Program MFA.

For a time, writing letters was all the rage; it was how we communally processed emotions, shared gossip, cultivated intimacy, and laundered our biggest and brightest thoughts—but it was also how we learned to read each other. THE OXHERD BOY
By Regina Linke

"Are we on the right path?" asked the rabbit? The boy looked around. Maybe there is no path. Maybe the path is made simply by walking."

Following in the footsteps, hooves and pawprints of the bestselling illustrated inspirational book THE BOY, THE MOLE, THE FOX AND THE HORSE comes Regina Linke's exquisite fable THE OXHERD BOY.

Largely based on the wisdom of classical Asian philosophy and religion, the story gently cultivates resilience, compassion and humility through the small adventures and conversations of these three friends. As the boy, the rabbit, and the ox (who represent the three core beliefs of classical Chinese thought) wander through the day, meeting villagers, forging rivers, tilling fields, and planting rice, they muse about ways to live mindfully in an often stormy world. Artist and writer Regina Linke's magnificent paintings are executed in the ancient Chinese technique known as gongbi that uses highly detailed brushstrokes and careful layering of color over fine line drawings to create magical, immersive scenes and emotive, engaging characters.

Regina Linke is a Taiwanese American artist specializing in contemporary Chinese gongbi painting. She writes and illustrates stories that celebrate East Asian folklore and philosophy in an accessible and modern way. Her most notable creation is "The Oxherd Boy," a single-panel, adult webcomic with a highly engaged audience whose characters volunteers from around the world have translated the comics into ten languages. Regina Linke lives in Taipei, Taiwan with her husband and young son, who inspires her every day as a real-life oxherd boy.

FEEL SOMETHING, MAKE SOMETHING: A Guide to Collaborating Creatively with Your Emotions
by Caitlin Metz

FEEL SOMETHING, MAKE SOMETHING is a guide to experimental, creative self-expression and reflection. Caitlin Metz believes that making art—whether it's an expressive scribble on a crumpled receipt or a 100-day series of line drawings—gives your feelings a physical form and provides space to observe them from a distance. Metz offers tutorials on zine-making (complete with a pull-out DIY zine to keep in your wallet), drawing, bodymapping, mindmapping, self-portraiture, and writing personal manifestos.

This act of creation can be a form of release, documentation, ritual, conversation, or disruption. You may choose to sustain your feeling, to channel it into your work, or to shift it completely. To feel something and make something is both an invitation to take a breath and an opportunity to shift your perspective. FEEL SOMETHING, MAKE SOMETHING is not about making perfectly polished works of art. The outcome of your art-making is arbitrary. The process is the work.

Caitlin Metz is an artist and educator who works across mediums to visually communicate a sense of belonging and make the world feel a little less lonely. The co-author of MY BODY, MY HOME: A Radical Guide to Resilience and Belonging (Clarkson Potter, 2020), Caitlin uses art as a means of processing feelings and disrupting systems of power with tenderness and empathy.

PERMISSION TO REST: Revolutionary Practices for Healing, Empowerment, and Spiritual Growth
By Ashley Neese

In a culture that constantly tells us to do more of everything, including nothing, PERMISSION TO REST is a passionate cry for a more regulated, resourced, and rested life. Author and wellness expert Ashley Neese combines personal essays, contemplative questions, scientific research, and somatic practices to help readers disrupt the trance of urgency, reflect inward, and rest deeply. Neese invites readers to question their beliefs around rest and offers support around the very real challenges of shame, guilt, and discomfort that often arise when we attempt to slow down. Neese builds on her previous book on breathwork, HOW TO BREATHE, to present a series of body-focused rest practices, addressing common roadblocks when beginning a rest practice, the incredible health benefits of prioritizing rest, and a number of holistic resources for developing a sustainable relationship to rest. PERMISSION TO REST is both a timely manifesto and compassionate call to action.

Ashley Neese holds an MFA from the California College of the Arts and is certified in breathwork, Hatha yoga, and more. Ashley has practiced breathwork for years and works with clients all over the world. She is a regular contributor to GOOP and opened the 2018 GOOP On Health summit. ## THE BLACK YEARBOOK by Adraint Bereal

A gripping exploration of the joys, hardships, and truths of Black students through intimate, honest dialogues and stunning photography.

In this second iteration of THE BLACK YEARBOOK, Bereal expands the scope of his original project and visits colleges nationwide, from Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU) to predominantly white institutions to trade schools and more. Rather than solely dwelling on the monolith of trauma often associated with Black narratives, Bereal is dedicated to using honest dialogue to share stories of true joy and triumph amidst the hardships, prejudices, and internal struggles. Using an exciting and eclectic design approach to accompany the portraits and stories, each individual profile effectively conveys the interviewee's unique voice, tone, and background. THE BLACK YEARBOOK reframes society's stereotypical perception of higher education by representing and celebrating the wide range of Black experiences on campuses.

Adraint Bereal is a graduate of the University of Texas. His work has been displayed in the George Washington Carver Museum in Austin, and he has been covered by the New York Times, Vice, The Atlantic, CNN, and the Washington Post. He now shoots campaigns for major clients such as Calvin Klein, Outdoor Voices, and AirBnB.

THE COLLARS OF RBG: A Portrait of Justice
by Elinor Carucci and Sara Bader

Small in stature but towering in influence, Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg has been described as a titan, a warrior, a civil rights hero, and most poetically, "a rock of righteousness." THE COLLARS OF RUTH BADER GINSBURG is a collection of photographs and stories of twenty-four of Justice Ginsburg's iconic collars, each of which tells a story about her monumental influence.

These collars, captured in over 100 photographs, illustrate different pieces of Justice Ginsburg's story: the lives she touched, the values she defended, and the Supreme Court opinions that changed the course of history. Some of these collars are well-known; others are less familiar but tell poignant stories that have not been shared until now. For the millions who revere Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg, this book is a celebration, a commemoration, a memento, and an intimate visual portrait of a woman who forever reshaped the cultural landscape for us all.

Elinor Carucci is an award-winning fine art photographer whose work has been included in many solo and group exhibitions worldwide and can be seen in The New York Times Magazine, New Yorker, Time, W, Aperture, ARTnews, and dozens of other publications. Sara Bader is a writer, researcher, and editor. Bader has worked as an acquisition's editor for Princeton Architectural Press and as a senior editor for Phaidon. In addition to editing dozens of photography and visual culture books, she has conceived of several of her own works for Phaidon, including ART IS THE HIGHEST FORM OF HOPE & OTHER QUOTES BY ARTISTS and YOU HAD BETTER MAKE SOME NOISE.

WASH DAY: Passing on the Legacy, Rituals, and Love of Natural Hair to the Next Generation
by Tomesha Faxio

In this stunning collection of beautiful photographs and powerful essays, documentary photographer Tomesha Faxio captures the intimate details of “wash day,” a day that Black women set aside to wash, detangle, condition, and style their natural hair. Though wash day is routine practice in Black households, its significance goes far beyond hygiene or self-care. It is an opportunity for Black women to embrace their curly, coily locks and, when they have daughters, pass on this sacred ritual to the next generation. WASH DAY celebrates the bonds formed between Black mothers and daughters through gorgeous photographs of their hair care rituals and insightful stories that detail their unique natural hair journeys. Faxio brings us into the lives of thirty different families, illustrating the many ways that Black mothers have instilled love, acceptance, and confidence in their daughters about wearing their natural hair. Exploring everything from texturism and hair discrimination to the feeling of not being quite “there” in your natural hair journey, WASH DAY is a visual homage to Black culture, Black rituals, and the generational bonds that strengthen the Black community.

OVERLOOKED: A Celebration of Remarkable, Underappreciated People Who Broke the Rules and Changed the World by Amy Padnani and the New York Times

Since 1851, The New York Times has published thousands of obituaries, but only a fraction of the Times's obits has chronicled the lives of women or people of color. The vast majority tell of the lives of men—mostly white men. OVERLOOKED seeks to rectify this.

Started as a series in the Obituary section, OVERLOOKED revisits the Times's 170-year history to fill in the gaps for people who were, for whatever reason, left out. Featuring contributions by writers such as Susan Dominus, Veronica Chambers, Amanda Hess, Reggie Ugwu, Jon Pareles, and more, it seeks to right the wrongs of the past, establish a new precedent for equitable coverage of lives lost, and refocus society's lens on who it considers worthy of remembrance.

Amisha (Amy) Padnani is an award-winning staff editor at The New York Times and a keynote speaker on topics such as diversity, where she often highlights people who are underrepresented in society. In 2018, she was named Incredible Woman of the Year by Porter Magazine.

The New York Times is a daily newspaper published in New York City and distributed internationally. Founded in 1851, the newspaper has won 122 Pulitzer Prizes, more than any other newspaper.

PROJECT 562: Changing the Way We See Native America by Matika Wilbur

In 2012, Matika Wilbur sold everything in her Seattle apartment and set out on a Kickstarter-funded pursuit to visit, engage, and photograph people from what were then 562 federally recognized Native American Tribal Nations. Over the next decade, she traveled six hundred thousand miles across fifty states. The body of work Wilbur created serves to counteract the one-dimensional and archaic stereotypes of Native people in mainstream media and offers justice to the richness, diversity, and lived experiences of Indian Country.

The culmination of this decade-long art and storytelling endeavor, PROJECT 562 is a peerless, sweeping, and moving love letter to Indigenous Americans, containing hundreds of stunning portraits and compelling personal narratives of contemporary Native people—all photographed in clothing, poses, and locations of their choosing. Their narratives touch on personal and cultural identity as well as issues of media representation, sovereignty, faith, family, the protection of sacred sites, subsistence living, traditional knowledge-keeping, land stewardship, language preservation, advocacy, education, the arts, and more.

A vital contribution from an incomparable artist, PROJECT 562 inspires, educates, and truly changes the way we see Native America.

Matika Wilbur is a critically acclaimed social documentarian and photographer from the Swinomish and Tulalip peoples of coastal Washington. ZODIAC: A Graphic Memoir

by Ai Weiwei; Illustrated by Gianluca Costantini

In this beautifully illustrated and deeply philosophical graphic memoir, legendary artist Ai Weiwei explores the connection between artistic expression and intellectual freedom through the lens of the Chinese zodiac.

As a child living in exile during the Communist Revolution, Ai Weiwei often found himself with nothing to read but government-approved comic books. Although they were restricted by the confines of political propaganda, Ai was struck by the artists' ability to express their thoughts on art and humanity through graphic storytelling. Now, decades later, Ai Weiwei and Italian comic artist Gianluca Costantini present ZODIAC, Ai's first graphic memoir.

Inspired by the twelve signs of the Chinese zodiac and their associated human characteristics, Ai Weiwei masterfully interweaves ancient Chinese folklore with stories of his life, family, and career. The narrative shifts back and forth through the years—at once in the past, present, and future—mirroring memory and our relationship to time. As readers delve deeper into the beautifully illustrated pages of ZODIAC, they will find not only a personal history of Ai Weiwei—and modern China—but a philosophical exploration of what it means to find oneself through art and freedom of expression.

Ai Weiwei is one of the world's most important living artists. His political activism has long made him a target of the Chinese authorities, culminating in months of secret detention without charge in 2011. He is the recipient of numerous human rights awards, including the Václav Havel Prize for Creative Dissent and Amnesty International's Ambassador of Conscience Award. He is the author of the narrative memoir 1000 YEARS OF JOYS AND SORROWS.

Gianluca Costantini is an Italian cartoonist, comic journalist, and activist. VICTORIAN PARLOUR GAMES: 50 Traditional Games for Today's Parties by Thomas W. Cushing

Have a seat in the parlour and spend a rollicking evening with this elegant box of 50 Victorian-era entertainments. The box comes with rules to fifty games that can be played without any extra frippery, except perhaps a deck of cards if you fancy a game of Whist.

Each game is good for 2 or more players, with most designed for a group to play together. Card games and guessing games, pantomime, and word play—all provide an after-dinner evening of fun, or an afternoon of amusement on the couch or around a picnic table. Each game is simple to learn, quick to play, and has silly penalties for when a player is “out.” One side of each card provides the category, the number of players, and the set up for the game while the other has the rules so you can keep them handy as you play.

Thomas W. Cushing is a writer, entrepreneur, and professional packager. He is the creator of the card game SHOW ME THE MONET and board game LIZZY LOVES DARCY.

RENUNCIATION: *A Game of Capitalism and Karma
by Kim Krans

Looking for the spiritual journey of a lifetime? From the visionary artist behind THE WILD UNKNOWN TAROT comes a board game that requires the winner to lose it all. In this cutthroat competition against karma itself, two to six players will embrace new personas and race up the sacred mountain toward the cave of enlightenment. The problem is, this ancient cave must be entered empty-handed. Players start, instruction booklet in hand, with a bounty of material possessions and must learn to let go of each attachment, which is easier said than done.

Meanwhile, the winding path up the mountain peak is full of tricks, slips, backstabs, and sticky fingers. Put fate and free will to the test, avoid the karmic loop (where you could get stuck for the rest of eternity!), and make decisions carefully, considering the cosmic effect you'll have on your allies, enemies, and all humankind. Only you determine your destiny. Only you can lose to win. May good karma be with you—and all who travel the path of RENUNCIATION.

Kim Krans is an artist, writer, and yogi living in Portland, Oregon with her husband, Arjan. Kim is the creator of the New York Times bestselling tarot deck, THE WILD UNKNOWN TAROT. Kim received her BFA in drawing at Cooper Union, MFA in mixed media at Hunter College, and MA in depth psychology and creativity at Pacifica Graduate Institute. Her seeker's heart has brought her to study in-depth practices of yoga and shamanism in India, Africa, Europe, and the United Kingdom. Kim teaches events and workshops that activate the forces of creativity and radical transformation through art, meditations, mysticism, and movement.

LEI ALOHA: Celebrating the Vibrant Flowers and Lei of Hawai'i
by Meleana Estes with Jennifer Fiedler

Brimming with vibrant photos of Hawaii's most famous flower garlands: the lei, lush tropical gardens, and dreamy island settings, LEI ALOHA tells the story of the flowers, craftsmanship, and community of lei culture, offering a window to this beautiful world where life is a little slower, flowers are abundant, and personal connections run deep. Author and local style icon Meleana Estes continues the legacy of her native Hawai'ian grandmother, who was well known for her intricate and stunning leis and the warmth with which she shared them. Each chapter tells the story of a grouping of flowers and leis, such as plumerias for a sweet gathering of neighborhood keiki (kids), elegant strands of white and yellow ginger for a candlelight-lit poi supper party, or striking haku leis made for hula performances.

Stylist and lei expert Meleana Estes learned to make leis from her native Hawai'ian grandmother. Today her leis are in demand for fashion shows, photo shoots, workshops, and social media collaborations, and are inspiring a new generation of lei makers and flower shops. She is the founder of the Meleana lifestyle brand and her work has been featured in Coastal Living, French Elle, Vogue Japan, Garance Dore, CNN, and the BBC. CHEAP OLD HOUSES: An Unconventional Guide to Loving and Restoring a Forgotten Home
by Elizabeth and Ethan Finkelstein

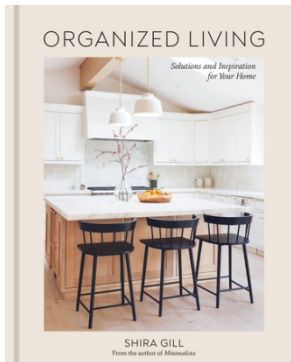

From the founders of the addictive Instagram handle and HGTV show Cheap Old Houses comes a look book of beautiful, affordable homes and a resource for anyone who's ever dreamed of buying and restoring an historic house.

Save this house! Welcome to the magical world of CHEAP OLD HOUSES, where the new American dream comes with zero mortgage and an alternative lifestyle fit for a storybook. Elizabeth and Ethan Finklestein have scoured the country to capture real homes bought for under $150,000—some for as little as $25,000 to $50,000—and the stories of how they were acquired and lovingly restored. Within these beautifully photographed pages, you'll discover monster Victorian mansions, Italianate-style farmhouses, Federal manors, off-the-beaten-path cabins, and even old schools and churches turned into residences. Peppering the home love stories is valuable insight from Elizabeth, who shares her perspective as a historical preservationist on her favorite details to look out for, from pocket doors to plaster walls to mansard roofs.

Husband-and-wife team Ethan and Elizabeth Finkelstein started the Instagram account @CheapOldHouses in 2016 to uncover the hidden gems across America and celebrate their potential with a community of old house lovers and dreamers. They've grown their brand into a show on HGTV and a newsletter that curates the best old houses for sale around America. They've been featured widely in such publications as New York magazine, Architectural Digest, The Financial Times, Forbes, Daily Mail, and Business Insider.

ORGANIZED LIVING: Solutions & Inspiration for Your Home
by Shira Gill

Level up your home organization with tips, lists, Q&As, and photos of the living spaces of twenty-five international home organizers, from the author of MINIMALISTA.

Whenever people learn that Shira Gill is a professional home organizer, they always lean in and ask the same initial question: "So, is your home really that organized?" Spoiler alert: the answer is yes. The idea for this book was born out of Shira's desire to give others a glimpse into this rarely-seen world: The very organized homes of people who organize others. And while there are already many books highlighting the spaces (and stories) of designers, entrepreneurs, and creatives, not one book currently exists that is dedicated specifically to showcasing the homes of home organizers. This book will introduce you to not only the aspirational spaces of the most organized people in the world, but also to the organizers themselves and the passion that fuels their work. Through images and interviews, you'll gain expert tips and resources, loads of visual inspiration, and clever organizing hacks you can use in your own home.

Shira Gill is a home organizing expert and author of MINIMALISTA. Over the past decade, she's helped thousands of clients get organized: students, teachers, brain surgeons, NASA scientists, artists, tech entrepreneurs, celebrities, and more. Shira has contributed to Goop, Real Simple, Sunset, Forbes, and Rue Magazine, and been featured in InStyle, Domino, Apartment Therapy, and more.

A SWEET FLORAL LIFE: *Romantic Arrangements for Fresh and Sugar Flowers [A Floral Décor Book]
by Natasja Sadi

Rising Instagram star Natasja Sadi's floral arrangements have a sumptuous, old-world look straight out of a classical painting. But the secret is that they often contain a surprise twist: handmade sugar flowers (traditionally used in cake decorating) that are indistinguishable from real ones and last forever. A former fashion designer, Sadi began making flowers out of sugar to honor her African and Indonesian ancestors who worked in the sugarcane fields of Suriname. In A SWEET FLORAL LIFE, Sadi provides steps for sculpting sugar flowers, a versatile medium with limitless possibilities—they can be used in fresh floral arrangements, displayed on their own, or used to adorn cakes for weddings, anniversaries, or parties. And whether it's the middle of summer or the dead of winter, sugar flowers are always in season and always in perfect full bloom.

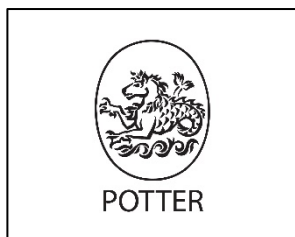

In addition, Sadi guides you through the creative process of fresh flower arranging and developing a personal style, along with tutorials for seasonal arrangements, living and entertaining with flowers, and how to photograph flowers. Capture the romance, set the mood, and be swept away by gorgeous and inspiring floral art with A SWEET FLORAL LIFE.

Natasja Sadi is a celebrated floral artist who composes fresh flower arrangements and sculpts exquisite sugar flowers from her home atelier in Amsterdam. Her celebration cakes are lifelike resemblances of floral beauty and are some of the most sought after in Europe. She and her flowers have been featured in magazines such as Elle Decor, Victoria magazine, Flower Magazine, and Dutch Vogue and Harper's Bazaar. She teaches floral design and the secrets of sugar flower artistry in Europe, Asia, South Africa, and North America.
