MORE IS MORE: Get Loose in the Kitchen
by Molly Baz

*There is a natural ease to the way Baz approaches both cooking and recipe writing — with intuitive directions and useful ingredient explanations — that makes both experienced cooks and newbies feel comfortable with trying to cook like her. — Eater

Learn to cook with confidence and unbridled joy in 100 big, bold, flavorful recipes from New York Times bestselling author Molly Baz. It's time to crank up the heat and lose the measuring spoons because the secret to cooking is hiding in one simple motto: MORE IS MORE. In MORE IS MORE, she's teaching cooks how to level up their cooking, loosen up in front of that ripping hot pan, and seek deliciousness at all costs. MORE IS MORE is a philosophy that encourages more risk-taking, better intuition, fewer exact measurements, and a "don't stop 'til it tastes delicious" mentality, with recipes fit for any day of the week and for cooks of all skill levels.

Molly Baz is a food editor and recipe developer whose stories and recipes have been featured in Bon Appétit magazine and who has appeared in the brand's YouTube shows, Making Perfect and Molly Tries. Her Instagram @mollybaz has over 690k followers.

NOURISH: Simple Recipes to Empower Your Body and Feed Your Soul: A Healthy Lifestyle
by Gisele Bündchen

Superstar model and environmental activist Gisele Bündchen believes wellness begins with food. At home, she follows an 80/20 plan, with 80% of her diet focused on fueling her body with healthy and lean proteins and nutrient-rich vegetables while the remaining 20% is reserved for eating with more flexibility (hello mom’s chicken lasagna!). In her first cookbook, she devotes the first quarter of the book to walking readers through adjusting to this new mindset and offers practical guidance for making it work. From breaking cycles to setting intentions, the merits of an occasional juice fast, buying in bulk, minimizing waste, and meal planning this book of 100 recipes is as much about cooking as it is about living with mindfulness.

Gisele Bündchen is a world-renowned model and was named one of the top 100 fashion icons of all time.

TIFFY COOKS: 88 Easy Asian Recipes from My Family to Yours
by Tiffy Chen

Tiffy Chen started blogging about food and recipes after learning to cook from her mother and grandmother. In her debut cookbook, Tiffy shares memories and recipes shaped by growing up in Taiwan—a country with rich culture, diverse cuisines, and some of the best street food in the world—along with beloved Taiwanese family recipes and unique dishes inspired by her travels across Southeast Asia. With 88 flavor-packed recipes, Tiffy offers her favorite quick and easy everyday dishes, like a classic Taiwanese Breakfast Sandwich to her grandmother’s Sesame Chicken Rice.

Tiffy Chen was born and raised in Taiwan. As a teenager, she immigrated with her family to Canada. She turned her passion project of cooking and sharing food videos and stories into a widely successful online platform with her immensely popular TikTok, tiffycooks, has 2.1M followers and features her signature easy-to-make Asian recipes.

BELLY FULL: Exploring the Caribbean Cuisine through 11 Fundamental Ingredients by Lesley Enston

Trinidadian food writer Lesley Enston brings us into the overlapping histories of the Caribbean islands through their rich cultures and cuisines. The widespread use of the eleven staple ingredients in BELLY FULL (cassava, chayote, coconut, cornmeal, okra, plantains, pumpkin, rice, salted cod, and scotch bonnet peppers) comes from the harrowing history and impact of the Atlantic Slave Trade and colonialism on the islands. The book is organized by ingredient, and we get basic knowledge on choosing, storing, and preparing these ingredients as well as a mix of traditional and creative adaptations to dishes.

Lesley Enston is a recipe developer, food writer and tester whose work has been featured in Basically, Bon Appetit and Food52. She is a home cook of Trinidadian descent and aims to highlight the diversity and beauty of Caribbean cuisine, embrace the shared histories of all the islands and how that shapes their food culture, and introduce the food of the Caribbean to home cooks everywhere.

SWEET TOOTH by Sarah Fennel

When Sarah Fennel launched her website Broma Bakery in 2010, little did she know that 10 years later her brown butter chocolate chip cookie recipe would have more than 2.5 million views across social media! In her first cookbook, she divides 100 recipes for easy bakes into chapters like Elevated Nostalgia (Peanut Butter + Jelly Swirled Blondies), Inventive Sweets (Espresso Martini Cake), Brunch Bakes (Raspberry Croissant Bread Pudding), Almost Too Pretty (Salted Caramel Pot de Cremes), and Holiday Baking (Coconut Cake Snowballs). Her fans also love single-serve sweets, so in SWEET TOOTH, they get a whole chapter of them—like Molten Lava Cakes for Two and Small-Batch Blueberry Muffins. Useful, playful, and with often-times “I can’t believe it was so easy!” instructions, these recipes suit beginners, pros, and anyone who has a sweet tooth.

Sarah Fennel, self-taught baker and photographer, created her online blog Broma Bakery in 2010 which now has a newsletter subscriber email list of over 150k fans. She also founded her company Foodtography where she leads food photography and food styling classes.

BOBBY FLAY CHAPTER ONE by Bobby Flay with Emily Timberlake

Few chefs have touched so many Americans’ lives with their cooking as Bobby Flay. With decades worth of television appearances, restaurant openings, and game-changing recipes to his name, Flay is an American icon, and one of only three chefs to have a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame. In BOBBY FLAY CHAPTER ONE, Flay showcases 100 of his and his fans’ favorite dishes, many of which have never been published, and assembles them into one striking, definitive volume. In poignant, hilarious, and heartfelt headnotes and essays, Flay looks back on his greatest culinary hits—and even laughs at some of his misses—giving readers an unprecedented look at his flavor inspirations and creative process.

Bobby Flay is one of the country's most celebrated chefs, restaurateurs, media personalities, and authors. He is a James Beard Award winner, the author of seventeen cookbooks, and has starred in many Food Network programs, which earned him five Daytime Emmy Awards. In 2015, he became the first chef to be awarded a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame.

ZOE BAKES COOKIES

by Zoë François

There are countless ways to make a chocolate chip cookie. Whether it's thin and crispy or soft and cakey, everyone has their own version they crave. In ZOË BAKES COOKIES, expert baker and bestselling author Zoë François explains how each ingredient and how much of it gets you making cookies that satisfy every cookie lover out there. Zoë takes you through the classic cookie recipes every home baker would like to master and adds in some personal favorites from different eras in her life.

Zoë François studied art at the University of Vermont while also founding a cookie company as a way to earn extra money. She then traveled throughout Europe, tasting pastries along the way, and later studied at the Culinary Institute of America in New York. Together with Jeff Hertzberg she wrote the book ARTISAN BREAD IN FIVE MINUTES A DAY, which turned into a bestselling series. She created the Zoë Bakes website to share her passion for pastry and now has a hit TV series on the Magnolia Network.

VEGAN MOB: Vegan BBQ and Soul Food [A Plant-Based Cookbook] by Toriano Gordon

Toriano Gordon, the chef behind Vegan Mob, grew up sharing soul food meals with his family and friends. When he began eating vegan he was nostalgic for those childhood flavors, so he spent hours painstakingly recreating them from scratch. His innovative dishes became the backbone of Vegan Mob, a Bay Area original that draws in vegans and carnivores alike. In his first cookbook, he shares favorites from the restaurant as well as new recipes, inviting readers to try crowd-pleasing favorites like Brisket, Smackaroni, and Mobba'Q Baked Beans.

Born and raised in San Francisco, Toriano Gordon discovered a love of cooking from hanging around his grandfather's restaurants but spent twenty years recording and performing music before opening his immediately popular eatery. Vegan Mob has been covered in Eater and Food & Wine.

IN THE FIELD: Recipes and Stories of Community, Connection, and Conflict
by Hawa Hassan

Countries dealing with major conflict are rarely portrayed in a well-rounded light by the media—images of disarray and decline saturate their narratives, ignoring the strength, resourcefulness, and ingenuity that arises from having to navigate conflict. In IN THE FIELD, James Beard Award-winner Hawa Hassan brings us into these multi-faceted narratives for eight countries around the world: Afghanistan, Democratic Republic of the Congo, Egypt, El Salvador, Iraq, Lebanon, Liberia, and Yemen.

Each chapter is devoted to a different country and opens with an informative essay on the culture and the foodways written by a local from that area. Recipes follow highlighting indigenous ingredients and share intimate portraits of the people preserving food culture. This collection returns some agency to the people whose stories up until now have been ignored in the media and sheds light on the important work of preserving recipes and food traditions in places of conflict and migration.

Hawa Hassan is a James Beard award winner and culinary triple threat: dynamic chef, TV personality and entrepreneur. She's the founder of Basbaas, a line of sauce and condiments inspired by her home country of Somalia, a fast-growing brand that has been featured in Forbes, The New York Times, Eater and more.

KOREAWORLD: A COOKBOOK by Deuki Hong and Matt Rodbard

Join chef Deuki Hong and journalist Matt Rodbard as they explore the exciting evolution of Korean food in modern times, breaking new recipe ground with beloved sweet-spicy barbecue, creative rice and seafood dishes, powerful stews, and KPOP-fueled street food. With KOREAWORLD, nearly a decade after KOREATOWN (Clarkson Potter, 2016), they show how Korean cuisine around the world is nothing less than a culinary revolution. KOREAWORLD takes us into the modern-day Korean barbecue scene in Seoul, the late-night bar crawls of Los Angeles, and into the kitchens of innovative chefs from Denmark to Portland, Oregon who are taking modern spins on Korean dishes.

Deuki Hong, co-author of the New York Times bestselling cookbook KOREATOWN, began his culinary career at 15 as a line cook, then graduated from the Culinary Institute of America near the top of his class. He has been recognized as an Eater Young Gun and named to the Zagat 30 Under 30 list.

Matt Rodbard is a writer, editor, and co-author of KOREATOWN, FOOD IQ (Harper Wave), an Amazon and Publishers Weekly Bestseller, and the Founding Editor of online food and culture magazine TASTE, winner of two James Beard Awards. His writing has appeared in the New York Times, the Wall Street Journal, Travel+Leisure, Bon Appétit, Saveur, GQ, and Fodor's.

Komolafe provides a solid and delicious foundation for bringing these ingredients, flavors, and techniques into our culinary repertoires. – Eater

The recipes, including classics like Jollof Rice, Puff Puff, and Groundnut Stew, are a starting point for the home cook, allowing them to trust the ingredients and achieve the variety of textures and flavors Nigerian food is known for. Beautiful photographs of the city and its people invite readers into the energy and pulse of Lagos, while the food photography entices them to make each and every dish in the book.

Yewande Komolafe is a Berlin-born, Lagos-raised food writer, recipe developer, and food stylist based in Brooklyn. Her professional career began as a pastry cook in classic French pastry kitchens. She moved on to work in fine dining restaurants in Atlanta and New York, where she was one of the first employees of Momofuku Milk Bar. Yewande's writing and recipes have appeared in the New York Times, Whetstone, Food & Wine, Munchies, among others, and she wrote the official WAFFLES & MOCHI Netflix tie-in cookbook (Clarkson Potter, 2021).

KUNG FOOD: Chinese American Recipes from a Third-Culture Kitchen by Jon Kung

Jon Kung grew up as a "third-culture" kid: Born in Los Angeles, raised in Hong Kong and Toronto, and now living in Detroit, Jon learned to embrace his diasporic identity in the kitchen after pivoting his career from law school graduate to being a cook. When the pandemic shut down his immensely popular popup, he turned to social media—not just as a means of creative expression, but as a way to teach and inspire.

Over time, Jon discovered that expressing himself through food not only reflected his complicated identities, it affirmed them. From dumplings to the most decadent curried mac and cheese, Jon inspires millions through his creative recipes and content. Through stunning, playful, and high-energy photos and Jon's wit and humility, he brings forward a collection of recipes that blend cultural traditions, ingredients, and flavors with his ultimate goal of redefining what Chinese American food can be.

Jon Kung is a self-taught cook who was known for his popups and intricate dinners served out of his secret kitchen Kung Food Market/Studio. He is now a full-time content creator on TikTok (1.6M), YouTube (477K), and Instagram (211K). Jon has been featured in USA Today, CNN, The New York Times, The Washington Post, and Interview magazine.

A-GONG'S TABLE: Vegan Recipes from a Taiwanese Home [A Chez Jorge Cookbook] by George Lee

At just nineteen years old, George Lee (aka Chez Jorge on Instagram and TikTok) captivated social media audiences with his brilliant and simple solutions for veganizing the cuisine of his homeland Taiwan. And now, in this collection of more than ninety recipes, including breakfasts, small eats, soups, big sharing plates, and traditional festival dishes, George reveals all the tips and tricks for making outstandingly flavorful plant-based versions of the Taiwanese dishes you already, or soon will, know and love.

A-GONG'S TABLE is not only a celebration of the forms vegan Taiwanese food has taken on, but also a reimagination of what it can become.

George Lee is a Taiwanese cook, food writer, and self-taught photographer and videographer. He is the creator of the Chez Jorge food blog and social media accounts. He is a graduate of Le Cordon Bleu Paris and is currently studying biochemistry at University of California, Berkeley.

by the editors of Martha Stewart Living

Culinary icon Martha Stewart celebrates her 100th book with a very personal collection of her 100 most essential recipes and the memories behind them.

A highly curated collection of recipes forty years in the making! Martha Stewart fans will be delighted to have Martha's top recipes at hand, the ones she has turned to again and again over the decades, plus stories and photos from her personal archives.

Recipes include her mother's famous pierogies, her summer tomato tart, the "Marthatini," her killer baked potato topped with caviar (of course!), her famously delicious roast chicken, and the perfect paella she makes for the luckiest house guests who visit her Estate in Maine every summer. Behind each dish is a memory Martha shares of who or what inspired it or why she considers it essential, and she shares how her cooking style has evolved through the years along with, as always, her best tips for gathering over food with the people you love.

Martha Stewart is America's most trusted lifestyle expert and teacher, and the author of one hundred books on cooking, entertaining, crafts, home keeping, gardening, weddings, and decorating.

SOUPS, SALADS, SANDWICHES
by Matty Matheson

There's no doubt that Matty Matheson can cook. But when the world shut down during the pandemic, Matty—just like the rest of us—found himself at home for an indefinite period, struggling to consistently put out creative meals for his family. So, he went back to the basics that he knew his family would love.

SOUPS, SALADS, SANDWICHES is a cookbook for anyone and everyone, regardless of skill level in the kitchen. Create endlessly fun combinations that you can make for breakfast, lunch, and dinner. Pair a Giant Meatball Soup in Beefy Tomato Broth with his famed Lasagne, or serve up Rizzo's Wedge Salad alongside the Matty and Trishy Tuna Melt.

Packed with character, personal stories, scrumptious recipes, and vivid photographs of a day-in-the-life with his family, SOUPS, SALADS, SANDWICHES will have you fearlessly whipping up combinations in no time in the kitchen, just like Matty.

Matty Matheson is a two-time New York Times best-selling author, an internationally renowned chef and restaurateur, and an executive producer and actor on FX's hit breakout show The Bear.

MAKE IT JAPANESE: Simple Recipes for Everyone: A Cookbook by Rie McClenny with Sanaë Lemoine

Learn the building blocks of authentic Japanese home cooking from beloved food personality Rie McClenny with 85 satisfying, soulful everyday recipes.

Rie McClenny grew up in a small seaside city in Japan, and when she moved to rural West Virginia, she longed for the food she ate back home—but she had to make do with the only three Japanese staples she could find: sake, mirin, and soy sauce. She soon realized that with just these three ingredients and a little creativity, she could make a myriad of Japanese dishes to satisfy her cravings. Now, Rie shares just how approachable Japanese home cooking can be, no matter where you are.

Rie McClenny is a food video producer for BuzzFeed Tasty and a popular culinary content creator. Rie moved to the United States from Hiroshima Japan nearly sixteen years ago to pursue a culinary degree from the International Culinary Center..

Sanaë Lemoine was born in Paris to a Japanese mother and French father and was raised in France and Australia. She now lives in New York and is the author of the novel, THE MARGOT AFFAIR (Hogarth, 2021).

CURED: The Fundamentals of Making and Cooking with Ferments, Pickles, Preserves, and More
 by Steve McHugh with Paula Forbes

The secret to six-time James Beard Award-nominated chef Steve McHugh's success comes down to one word: curing. He transforms everyday in-season ingredients into charcuterie, pickles, jams, mustards, and more, intensifying their flavors to layer them into future meals. An invaluable guide, CURED explains both how to preserve foods and why you should embrace this popular technique in your own home. Whether a beginner or seasoned preserver, Steve leads you through how to make preserves, and also give you recipes for when you bought a jar or bottle that caught your eye at the farmer's market that you can't decide how to use.

Steve McHugh is a six-time James Beard Foundation Award nominated chef based in San Antonio. With two restaurants to his name and more on the way, this acclaimed chef's growing roster positions him as one of the most prominent names in the booming Texas food scene.

Paula Forbes is best known for her work as a journalist and cookbook critic, writing consistently for Texas Monthly and Eater. She was integral to a cult favorite food website, Eat Me Daily, as the sole editor for the entire operation. She quickly became an expert in the art of cookbook writing and shares tips and news in her newsletter, Stained Page News. She is the author of THE AUSTIN COOKBOOK (Abrams).

PRETTY SIMPLE COCKTAILS
 by Julianna McIntosh

The perfect cocktail book for anyone who wants a well-balanced cocktail that's as aesthetically pleasing as it is easy to shake up, PRETTY SIMPLE COCKTAILS breaks down the basics of cocktail making from bar equipment to mixing syrups. Julianna McIntosh, a self-taught cocktail pro, offers breezy recipes and tips in this friendly approach to mixology.

In addition to recipes divided by occasion and seasonality, Julianna offers plenty of smart tips for building and maintaining a home bar including her list of must-have equipment (with substitution options), a cocktail glass primer, a how-to on whimsical garnishes (dehydrated citrus! brûléed fruit!), and a "Make This Next" index. Whether you're hosting a swanky cocktail party or are batching drinks to bring to the beach, PRETTY SIMPLE COCKTAILS has you covered.

Served up with grace and a little flair, Julianna's dazzling collection of thirst-quenching recipes will impress with its delightful voice and generous salt rims. PRETTY SIMPLE COCKTAILS keeps cocktail fun and approachable.

Julianna McIntosh started the online platform Join Jules in 2020 in San Diego with the idea that everyone ought to be able to enjoy a craft cocktail at home without having to go to mixology school. Under her popular username Join_Jules, Julianna has over 1M followers across platforms: 894k on TikTok and 289k on Instagram.

THE BARTENDER'S PANTRY: A Handbook for the Universal Bar [A Cocktail Reference and Recipe Book]
by Jim Meehan

After focusing on alcohol in his first book, Meehan now breaks down the fundamentals of non-alcoholic mixers in THE BARTENDER'S PANTRY—from teas to coffees and ferments; spices and herbs; juices, simple syrups, and sweeteners.

This accessible and universal guide to mixers features profiles of the basic ingredients, the farmers who grow them, the suppliers who forage for them, and the best way to prepare them for drinks. Beautiful imagery and step-by-step illustrations showing precisely how to put together each base mixer and drink. THE BARTENDER'S PANTRY is an indispensable guide not just for bartenders, but for anyone hoping to drink better.

Jim Meehan is a bartender, educator, and author of Tales of the Cocktail Spirited Award-winning THE PDT COCKTAIL BOOK (Sterling) and the James Beard Award-winning MEEHAN'S BARTENDER MANUAL (Ten Speed Press, 2017). He is also the winner of the Tales of the Cocktail Best Bar Mentor Award. Meehan edited eight editions of Food & Wine's annual cocktail book and currently serves as drinks editor for Tasting Table.

DRINKING ITALIAN: The Spirited Traditions, Rituals, and Recipes of Italy's Drinking Culture
by Brad Thomas Parsons

In the style of David Lebovitz's DRINKING FRENCH, Brad Thomas Parsons presents the world of Italy's drinking culture, from aperitivo to digestivo and beyond. Parsons explores Italy's robust caffè culture; the rich history of vermouth; regionally driven liqueurs like mirto, grappa, and the country's diverse wine offerings; along with a spirited lineup of classic and contemporary cocktails from Italian bartenders—including some recipes from Italian-American and Italian-influenced bars and restaurants in the U.S.

DRINKING ITALIAN is about the observations, customs, rituals, and traditions of what it means to drink like an Italian, filtered through Parsons's own point of view and his efforts to translate and adopt that undeniable Italian sprezzatura charm into daily life, from that first, standing-up-at-the-bar sip of espresso to the last amaro before bed.

Brad Thomas Parsons is the author of Bitters (which was the winner of the James Beard and IACP Cookbook Awards, and a finalist for the Tales of the Cocktail Spirited Awards), Last Call, Amaro, and Distillery Cats. Parsons received an MFA in writing from Columbia University, and his work has appeared in Bon Appétit, Lucky Peach, Food & Wine, Travel + Leisure, PUNCH, Vinepair, Substack, and more.

THE MEMORY OF TASTE: Vietnamese American Recipes from Phú Quoc, Oakland, and the Spaces Between
by Tu David Phu

Tu David Phu trained in the nation's top restaurants only to realize the culinary lessons that truly impacted him were those passed on by his parents: refugees from Phú Quoc. In his hometown of Oakland, California, his parents taught him hard-won lessons in frugality, zero-waste cooking, and practical gill-to-fin eating.

Centered around Phu's childhood memories in the diverse Bay Area and family stories of life on Phú Quốc Island, THE MEMORY OF TASTE explores the Phu family's ability to thrive and adapt from one coastal community to another and how Tu took those lessons to heart. With tried-and-true tips, tastebud-tingling flavor combinations, and immersive travel photography, Phu guides both novice and experienced chefs alike in his take on Viet cooking.

Tu David Phu is a Vietnamese-American, San Francisco Chronicle Rising Star Chef, Top Chef alumnus, author, and Emmy-nominated filmmaker. He has cooked across various cultures, from the American culinary greats to classical European traditions. But it is what he calls "the memory of taste" that pulled him back to his roots: the practices, ingredients, techniques, and flavors of Vietnamese cuisines, and he is passionate about sharing the riches and lessons of his birthright through food.

THE SCARR'S PIZZA BOOK: New York-Style Pizza for Everybody
by Scarr Pimentel

Scarr Pimentel knows what makes a good pizza—he cut his teeth in the culinary world at some of New York's most iconic pizzerias and restaurants, including Emilio's Ballato, Lombardi's, Artichoke, and Joe's. And now, in his debut cookbook that is as unique as his shop, he shares his ethos, techniques, and recipes to being a great pizzaiolo.

Starting with round and square variations of his dough that includes the famously hand-milled dough—recommended, but not required—Scarr breaks down the anatomy of his famous pies. Learn the tips and tricks to mill your own flour, source the freshest ingredients, and make the tastiest sauce and toppings, all while being guided by Scarr's unfussy, encouraging voice.

SCARR'S PIZZA COOKBOOK is filled to the brim with collages of the retro-diner's old-school vibes, step-by-step photos on how to make the dough, and recipes to bring Scarr's Pizza home to your kitchen.

Born and raised in Manhattan, Scarr Pimentel grew up surrounded by family and friends in the food industry which inspired his love for restaurants. After working in various spots downtown, Scarr opened Scarr's Pizza in 2016. With a focus on all natural ingredients, Scarr's Pizza is committed to creating high-quality products for the community and beyond.

SMART MOUTH: Wine Essentials for You, Me, and Everyone Else We Know
by Jordan Salcito

Jordan Salcito grew up enjoying wine but not always understanding why she liked what she did. Over years of tasting wine and spearheading award-winning programs for places like the Momofuku restaurant group, she created her own language and framework for choosing the perfect bottle. Using her own journey as a template, she demystifies this beloved beverage for everyone, sharing vital information so you can be confident in finding wines that you love, too.

Jordan leads you through the wine making process, from the importance of soil quality to the best harvesting practices, explaining how each influences the final product. She then tracks the bottle from the winery to your table and offers advice on navigating restaurant wine lists and cultivating your own tastes so you can find your new favorites. Jordan also teaches you how to define your own value system using your own tasting descriptors so you can drink what you love. Full of practical advice on understanding your beverage arsenal, as well as questions, illustrations, and infographs, SMART MOUTH gives you permission to drink what you love, from boxed wine to top-shelf bottles—trends and prestige be damned.

Jordan Salcito is an award-winning sommelier turned entrepreneur. She founded Ramona, oversaw the beverage programs for David Chang's Momofuku restaurants, worked as a sommelier at Eleven Madison Park, and was the host of the Opening Up podcast. She is a Wine Enthusiast 40 Under 40 honoree and a two-time James Beard Award semi-finalist for Outstanding Wine, Spirits, or Beer Professional.

PIZZA NIGHT: Deliciously Doable Recipes for Pizza and Salad
by Alexandra Stafford

Creating consistently great pizza from scratch isn't complicated--even kids can get in on the fun and lend a hand! Whether cooking pizza in your kitchen oven, a tabletop pizza oven, or an outdoor wood-burning oven, it all starts with the dough.

Professional chef Alexandra Stafford presents six simple doughs including one that's gluten-free, for making deep dish, Neapolitan, and Sicilian style pizzas, along with easy techniques for perfecting your crust. Each pizza is paired with a salad made with seasonal ingredients, and a few simple dessert recipes make pizza night complete. From a springtime Asparagus, Salami, and Crème Fraiche Pizza served with a Snap Pea Salad with Walnuts and Citrus, to a Broccoli Rabe and Smoked Mozzarella Pizza accompanied by a FarmShare Harvest Slaw, PIZZA NIGHT serves up a year's worth of inspired, satisfying, pizzas and salads to make pizza.

Alexandra Stafford spent two years cooking at the acclaimed restaurant Fork, after which she left to start her blog Alexandra's Kitchen which won a Saveur Blog Award for Most Inspired Weeknight Dinners. Her first cookbook, BREAD TOAST CRUMBS, was nominated for the IACP Julia Child First Book. She is regularly featured on podcasts and in digital and traditional media. Her readers have come to know her as a source for accessible, elevated food.

TURKUAZ KITCHEN: 75 Recipes for Savory and Sweet Doughs
by Bëtül Tunç

Bëtül Tunç began creating vintage-style videos with her unique aesthetic and met with an incredible response. One of her first videos, featuring punch-down dough, went viral, amassing nearly 2 million views—an astounding achievement for a page with fewer than 30,000 followers at the time. This marked the inception of a new trend, with countless other punch-down videos mimicking her signature style. Bëtül's follower count skyrocketed to 5 million in just a year, propelled by the interest in her vintage style videos and her ability to make these sometimes-complex dough recipes look easy and doable (her Instagram account now sits at 8.3M).

In her first cookbook, Bëtül shares recipes broken down by leavened and unleavened dough. Within those two categories the book shows us how to create basic doughs (for bagels, pita, ciabatta, and muffins), sourdoughs (for pizza dough, bread, foccacia, and brioche), enriched doughs (for croissants, cardamom buns, buttermilk dinner rolls, and burger buns), pasta dough (for pastas, noodles, dumplings, and boreks), and finally an entire section on the Turkish recipes that inspire her (Turkish style phyllo, Turkish Pistachio Baklava, Spinach Triangle Borek, and Grandma's Lavash). Bëtül's book transports readers to a vintage 19th century kitchen where we delight in recreating her doable and inspiring recipes.

Bëtül Tunç is a baker originally from Turkey, and the founder of the social media phenomenon Turkuaz Kitchen with more than 9 million followers across Instagram and TikTok.

THE SALVISOUL COOKBOOK: Salvadoran Recipes and the Women Who Preserve Them

by Karla T. Vasquez

In this collection of eighty recipes, Karla shares her conversations with moms, aunts, grandmothers, and friends to preserve their histories so that they do not go unheard. Here are recipes for Rellenos de Güisquiles from Patricia who remembers the Los Angeles earthquakes of the 80s for many more reasons than just fear, Flor de Izote con Huevos Revueltos, a favorite of Karla's father, as well as variations on the beloved Salvadoran pupusa, a thick masa tortilla stuffed with different combinations of pork, cheese, and beans. Though the stories throughout the book vary, the women have a shared experience of what it was like in El Salvador before the war, and what life was like as Salvadoran women surviving in their new home in the United States. This beautifully photographed cookbook celebrates the vibrant culture and community of El Salvador through the lens of its delicious cuisine.

Karla Tatiana Vasquez is a food writer, recipe developer, and food stylist based in Los Angeles. Her writing has been published by The Los Angeles Times, The San Francisco Chronicle, Teen Vogue, Eater LA., and KCET among others. Her recipe development work can be seen in Food & Wine, Serious Eats, BuzzFeed Tasty, Tastemade and she continues to write regularly for the Los Angeles Times.

by Lukas Volger

In THE BREAD MACHINE COOKBOOK, veteran cookbook author Lukas Volger offers a thorough guide to the versatile bread machine—an appliance that mixes, kneads, proofs, and bakes bread – from how to buy one, use one, and utilize different ingredients and techniques to make your creations sing, including 75 classic, sourdough, savory, and sweet bread recipes designed for a modern pantry and palate.

Each recipe contains a "faster" and a "slower" method: The fast utilizes the machine's presets (just throw everything into your bread machine and let it work its magic), while the slower isolates the kneading and the baking functions to create bread with more developed flavor and better structure for not much extra work. With comprehensive but easy-to-digest tips for success including measuring methods, temperature targets, machine and visual cues to look for, and opportunities for hijacking your bread machine to knead and proof dough to be baked in your oven, this is the only book you need to bring easy, fail-proof loaves to the table every day.

Lukas Volger is a cookbook author, recipe developer, and entrepreneur in the food space. He's written five previous cookbooks, including BOWL and START SIMPLE, and his work has been featured in the New York Times, Bon Appetit, The Wall Street Journal, and elsewhere. Previously he co-created the award-winning queer food journal Jarry and the Brooklyn-based line of premium veggie burgers Made by Lukas.

THE AMBITIOUS KITCHEN COOKBOOK: 125 Ridiculously Good for You, Sometimes Indulgent, and Absolutely Never Boring Recipes for Every Meal of the Day
by Monique Volz

The social media star and beloved blogger behind The Ambitious Kitchen presents 125 nutrient-dense, flavor-packed recipes for every meal of the day.

Monique Volz founded her blog, The Ambitious Kitchen, to create creative flavorful recipes with nutrition and personality. Now in her debut book, Monique wants others to find their own Ambitious Kitchen: to discover boldness, unique flavors, health, and above all, the unique happiness that food can bring to your life. If you're looking for the perfect dish to bring to a gathering, a show-stopping recipe to become a new tradition in your home, or you need to put a nutrient-packed meal on the table for picky kids, the recipes in The Ambitious Kitchen Cookbook rise to all of these occasions.

Monique Volz founded her food & wellness blog, Ambitious Kitchen, back in 2011 with the hopes of sharing her healthy comfort foods with the world while processing the unexpected passing of her father. Monique immediately connected with readers looking for a dose of inspiration, storytelling and comfort through food. Fast-forward 12 years and you'll not only find a website with hundreds of unique nourishing recipes, but also a dedicated, ambitious community who crave Monique's inspiration. Monique's long-established blog is an online destination for home cooks (with over 5.2M monthly page views and 140k newsletter subscribers) and her Instagram following is robust and growing at 770k.

DANIELLE WALKER'S HEALTHY MEAL PREP: Cook Smarter, Not Harder [A Cookbook]
by Danielle Walker

In this practical, time-saving guide to meal prepping and menu planning, beloved author Danielle Walker removes all the guess work from your daily effort to get dinner on the table. In HEALTHY MEAL PREP, Danielle presents sixteen weeks of menus, along with prep-ahead and make-ahead ideas, shopping lists organized by grocery store departments, and proven tips for getting it all done quickly and effortlessly.

Because we all prep in different ways depending on the size of our families and the busyness of our lives, Danielle has identified six "prepper types"—including the batch cooker, who makes large quantities of food and freezes it for later, and the semi-homemade prepper, who adds store-bought ingredients to homemade dishes for quick meals—and developed recipes to appeal to all types.

Recipes such as Savory Sausage-Chive Breakfast Muffins, Roasted Pineapple and Sweet Potatoes with Cinnamon-Cashew Drizzle, Greek Lemon-Chicken Soup, Ginger Meatballs with Sesame Broccoli, Seared Salmon with Orange-Cucumber Salad, and Cuban Pork Sheet Pan Quesadillas are designed so components can be made ahead and then repurposed for other meals the same week. More recipes for breakfasts, snacks, and back-pocket dinners (meals created from pantry ingredients you already have!) round out this deliciously healthy collection.

Danielle Walker is the New York Times bestselling author of AGAINST ALL GRAIN, MEALS MADE SIMPLE, CELEBRATIONS, EAT WHAT YOU LOVE, HEALTHY IN A HURRY, and FOOD SAVED ME, as well as a health and wellness advocate and self-trained chef. After being diagnosed with an autoimmune disease at age twenty-two and suffering for many years, Danielle found health through dietary and lifestyle changes. Her work has been featured in People, O: The Oprah Magazine, USA Today, Shape, Women's Health, Parents, Well + Good, and more.

CLASSIC GERMAN COOKING
by Luisa Weiss

To many, German food is comfort food, simple food, the kind of food that may not ever win a beauty award, but that will more than make up for it in terms of its power to soothe, comfort, and nourish. In CLASSIC GERMAN COOKING, Luisa Weiss—who was born in Berlin to an Italian mother and American father, and who married into a family with roots in Saxony—has collected and mastered the essential everyday recipes of Germany.

From gulasch (beef stew) to kohlrouladen (stuffed cabbage), quarkauflauf (fresh cheese casserole) to hühnerfrikassee (chicken fricassee), German food is traditional food; it's been made for centuries. German food is also American food; more than 40 million Americans are of German descent, holding a special place in the hearts for sauerbraten (marinated braised beef), kartoffelsalat (potato salad), and sausages of all kinds. German food is also Jewish food; what are matzo balls if not knödel, latkes if not kartoffelpuffer, gefilte fish if not hechtstocken? Luisa tackles this all—and more—in CLASSIC GERMAN COOKING.

Luisa Weiss is an American-Italian food writer based in Berlin, Germany. She is the creator of the blog, The Wednesday Chef, and author of the critically acclaimed memoir, MY BERLIN KITCHEN, and baking book, CLASSIC GERMAN BAKING. She grew up in Berlin and Boston and graduated from Tufts University with degrees in English and French literature. She spent a decade working in book publishing in New York, most recently as senior cookbook editor at Stewart, Tabori, and Chang.

PRAISESONG FOR THE KITCHEN GHOSTS: Stories and Recipes from Five Generations of Black Country Cooks
by Crystal Wilkerson

Years ago, when O. Henry Prize-winning writer Crystal Wilkinson was baking ajam cake, she felt her late grandmother's presence. She soon realized that she was not the only cook in her kitchen; There were an abundance of ancestors stirring, measuring, and braising with her, her kitchen ghosts: five generations of Black women who made a life, a legacy, and a cuisine. Part food memoir, part cookbook, PRAISESONG FOR THE KITCHEN GHOSTS weaves fiction with historical records, memories, and interviews to present a unique culinary portrait of Black Appalachians.

Crystal Wilkinson, Kentucky's Poet Laureate, is the award-winning author of PERFECT BLACK, THE BIRDS OF OPULENCE, and BLACKBERRIES, BLACKBERRIES (all published by the University Press of Kentucky). She is the recipient of a 2022 NAACP Image Award for Outstanding Poetry and a 2021 O. Henry Prize, among others.

MASTERING THE ART OF PLANT-BASED COOKING by Joe Yonan

Plant-based eating has been evolving for centuries, creating a storied base of beloved recipes that are lauded around the globe. MASTERING THE ART OF PLANT-BASED COOKING is the first book to collect these dishes and wisdom into a single tome, treating vegan food as its own cuisine, worthy of mastery.

As an award-winning food editor and writer, Joe Yonan has spent years reporting on and making plant-based foods. With his finger on the pulse of this evergrowing cuisine, he has collected recipes and essays from prominent food writers in the plant-based sphere, creating a book that shows the true abundance of vegan food.

With an extensive pantry section for creating staples such as cheese, tofu, spice mixes, and plant milks, as well as numerous variations on base recipes, MASTERING THE ART OF PLANT-BASED COOKING will become a mainstay in your kitchen, delivering new recipes for years to come.

Joe Yonan is the two-time James Beard Award-winning food and dining editor of The Washington Post. He is the author of Cool Beans, which was named one of the best cookbooks of 2020 by Food Network, NPR, Forbes, Wired, and more. Joe was a food writer and travel section editor at The Boston Globe before moving to Washington in 2006 to edit the Post's food section. He writes the Post's "Weeknight Vegetarian" column and for five years wrote the "Cooking for One" column, both of which have won honors from the Association of Food Journalists.

HOW TO MAKE COFFEE: From Bean to Brew
by Hugh Acheson

More than likely, the first thought you have every morning is about coffee—and who can blame you? Regardless of whether drinking it is about utility, curiosity, or undying love, HOW TO MAKE COFFEE will be your go-to guide for making the best coffee, customized to suit your tastes.

In a package as winsome as its author, coffee connoisseur Hugh Acheson, this little book looks perfect front and center in your home. Keep it on the kitchen counter for easy use or leave it to display on your coffee table. Beyond expert tips for selecting the perfect bean, to finding the proper grind, to actually brewing in your preferred brewer (yes, there are details on those, too), you'll learn invaluable tips for how best to drink your particular coffee and enter the perfect crash course on coffee craft and culture. You'll be the star of cafe small talk, but, best of all, you'll be able to make a darn good cup of coffee.

Hugh Acheson is the chef/partner of the restaurants Five & Ten, The National, The Florence, and Empire State South, named restaurant of the year by Atlanta magazine. He is a five-time James Beard nominee and 2012 winner for Best Chef Southeast, has been featured in numerous food and wine publications, and appears on Bravo's Top Chef as a judge. Hugh is the author of The Chef and the Slow Cooker, The Broad Fork, A New Turn in the South, and Pick a Pickle.

MUSHROOMS OF CASCADIA, SECOND EDITION: An Illustrated Key to Northern Fungi
by Michael Beug

In this unique and comprehensive field guide, mycologist Dr. Michael Beug helps mushroom hunters of all levels navigate an often bewildering array of species by clearly identifying features that separate one cluster from another. By answering simple questions (Does the mushroom have gills? Are there upward pointing tips like coral? Is the underside smooth or veined?) and consulting the carefully chosen, full-color photos, Dr. Beug leads you step by step through the process of successfully identifying your find.

Covering gilled and non-gilled species, Chanterelles, Boletes, Amanitas, Agaricus, Psilocybe, and many, many more—and including descriptions of lookalikes and similar species—MUSHROOMS OF CASCADIA presents 3,000 species of mushrooms, with more than 1,000 clarifying full-color photographs. With this invaluable guide, even beginner foragers will know if they've found a distinctive edible (non-poisonous) versus a poisonous species.

Whether you're seeking hallucinogenic or medicinal varieties, or hunting mushrooms for dyeing fabric or making tonight's dinner, this exceptionally useful guide will teach you how to quickly and safely recognize what you find in the forest.

Michael Beug taught chemistry, mycology, and organic farming at The Evergreen State College for thirty-two years. Dr. Beug co-authored ASCOMYCETE FUNGI OF NORTH AMERICA and his mushroom photographs have appeared in more than eighty books and articles. He regularly writes about mushrooms in McIlvainea, The Mycophile, and Fungi Magazine and has discovered nearly 100 new mushroom species from a dozen genera.

FIELD GUIDE TO PSILOCYBIN MUSHROOMS: How to Safely Forage, Identify, Grow, and Microdose Psychoactive Mushrooms
by Paul Stamets

The past decade has seen an explosion of interest in using psilocybin (aka psychoactive or “magic”) mushrooms for recreational and medicinal purposes.

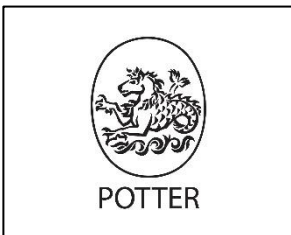

In this comprehensive, full-color reference, Paul Stamets offers descriptions and 150 photographs of more than 60 psilocybin varieties common to North America, Europe, and Australasia. He outlines the history and cultural use of magic mushrooms in traditional rituals and ceremonies, their natural distribution and habitats, and keys to growing your own mushroom patch. But perhaps most important, Stamets explains how to reliably distinguish between a non-poisonous, psychoactive mushroom and one of its highly toxic, even deadly, lookalikes.

Packed with a lifetime of scientific and real-world research, FIELD GUIDE TO PSILOCYBIN MUSHROOMS brings depth and understanding to an often-misunderstood topic. Revealing the potential of these powerful, mind-awakening fungi to help us live better, happier lives through micro- and macro-dosing, this handbook is an indispensable—and potentially lifesaving—addition to mushroom field guides from the biggest name in mycology.

We have another book from Paul Stamets, MYCELIUM RUNNING 2, planned for September 2025.

World-renowned mycologist Paul Stamets is the author of seven books and a sought-after international speaker. His research and lectures demonstrate how mushrooms can greatly enrich the health of both people and the planet. Stamets is also the founder of Host Defense Mushrooms, the #1 bestselling mushroom-based supplements brand in the U.S., and Fungi Perfecti, a family-owned business dedicated to promoting the cultivation of high-quality gourmet and medicinal mushrooms.

DR. FUN GUY'S PASSPORT TO KINGDOM FUNGI
by Gordon Walker

In DR. FUN GUY'S PASSPORT TO KINGDOM FUNGI, Dr. Gordon Walker walks you through everything you need to know to enter the world of fungi. The first section of the book is formatted in a comprehensive question-and-answer format, and covers everything from what mycelium is, to fungi's evolution and biochemistry, to how they are classified, to how fungi impact our world today. There is also information on foraging best practices, culinary techniques, and mushroom identification skills. The second half of the book profiles various mushrooms, from incredible edibles you can find in the wild, to the dangerously toxic, medicinal, and just plain weird. Finally, Gordon covers fungal phenomena, showing the amazing breadth and diversity of the fungal kingdom.

Featuring colorful and comprehensive science illustrations, mushroom photography, and QR codes linking to resources to help you continue your fungal explorations, this is the perfect portal to step through into the world of mushrooms.

After graduating from UC Davis with his PhD in Biochemistry, Molecular, Cellular, and Developmental Biology, and completing work at Opus One Winery in Napa Valley, Dr. Gordon Walker moved to Hawkes Bay, New Zealand. It was there that he discovered a fascination with fungi. In starting his @FascinatedByFungi social media accounts (1.9M TikTok, 413K Instagram), he hoped to familiarize himself with the incredible range of mushroom morphology.

THE OXHERD BOY: Parables of Love, Compassion, and Community by Regina Linke

“Are we on the right path?” asked the rabbit. The boy looked around. “Maybe there is no path. Maybe the path is made simply by walking.”

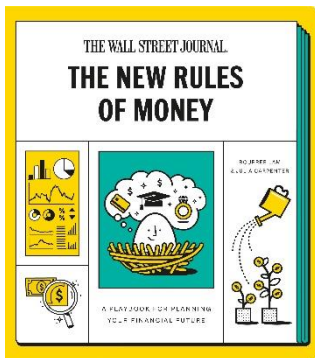

Following in the footsteps, hooves and pawprints of the bestselling illustrated inspirational book THE BOY, THE MOLE, THE FOX AND THE HORSE comes Regina Linke’s exquisite fable THE OXHERD BOY.

Largely based on the wisdom of classical Asian philosophy and religion, the story gently cultivates resilience, compassion and humility through the small adventures and conversations of these three friends. As the boy, the rabbit, and the ox (who represent the three core beliefs of classical Chinese thought) wander through the day, meeting villagers, forging rivers, tilling fields, and planting rice, they muse about ways to live mindfully in an often stormy world. Artist and writer Regina Linke’s magnificent paintings are executed in the ancient Chinese technique known as gongbi that uses highly detailed brushstrokes and careful layering of color over fine line drawings to create magical, immersive scenes and emotive, engaging characters.

Regina Linke is a Taiwanese American artist specializing in contemporary Chinese gongbi painting. She writes and illustrates stories that celebrate East Asian folklore and philosophy in an accessible and modern way. Her most notable creation is “The Oxherd Boy,” a single-panel, adult webcomic with a highly engaged audience whose characters volunteers from around the world have translated the comics into ten languages. Regina Linke lives in Taipei, Taiwan with her husband and young son, who inspires her every day as a real-life oxherd boy.

THE BLACK YEARBOOK
by Adraint Khadafhi Bereal

A gripping exploration of the joys, hardships, and truths of Black students through intimate, honest dialogues and stunning photography.

In this second iteration of THE BLACK YEARBOOK, Bereal expands the scope of his original project and visits colleges nationwide, from Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU) to predominantly white institutions to trade schools and more. Rather than solely dwelling on the monolith of trauma often associated with Black narratives, Bereal is dedicated to using honest dialogue to share stories of true joy and triumph amidst the hardships, prejudices, and internal struggles. Using an exciting and eclectic design approach to accompany the portraits and stories, each individual profile effectively conveys the interviewee's unique voice, tone, and background. THE BLACK YEARBOOK reframes society's stereotypical perception of higher education by representing and celebrating the wide range of Black experiences on campuses.

Adraint Khadafhi Bereal is a graduate of the University of Texas. His work has been displayed in the George Washington Carver Museum in Austin, and he has been covered by the New York Times, Vice, The Atlantic, CNN, and the Washington Post. He now shoots campaigns for major clients such as Calvin Klein, Outdoor Voices, and AirBnB.

STEPPING OUT: The Unapologetic Style of African Americans Over Fifty by Connie Briscoe; Photographs by Milton Washington

Dazzling images from up-and-coming photographer Milton Washington capture their fashion choices and very essences—from intrepid to chic, from sophisticated to free-spirited. And, written by award-winning novelist Connie Briscoe, powerful narratives about their backstories, struggles, and triumphs will reveal the vast cultural, spiritual, and historical influences on their style evolutions.

The full book package will poignantly represent why seniors' styles are so profoundly meaningful and connected to their identities as African Americans, worthy of celebrating and important to chronicle for future generations.

Connie Briscoe is the author of the New York Times bestseller BIG GIRLS DON'T CRY, as well as A LONG WAY FROM HOME, SISTERS & LOVERS, and many more. She lives in Ellicott City, Maryland.

Milton Washington's award-winning photography has been featured in The New York Times, Food & Wine, and Videomaker. And recently, Milton photographed an Afro-Futuristic fashion shoot for Emmy & Oscar nominated costume designer, Ruth Carter.

This style icon of Vogue and

The New Yorker

It has always got whistled after. Perhaps you've been fortunate enough to catch a glimpse of her in the flesh, walking through the streets of New York City, when she surprises for one of her many regenerative, likely wearing one of her colorful hats. Her hair for styling, funeral services with her clothing has made her a celebrated favorite of photographers. For Lana Truitt, creating ensembles from separate pieces is a passion, and she has. "Life is too short not to play," she says with a light but spirited laugh, as she sits about making and mending to create her signature arrangements.

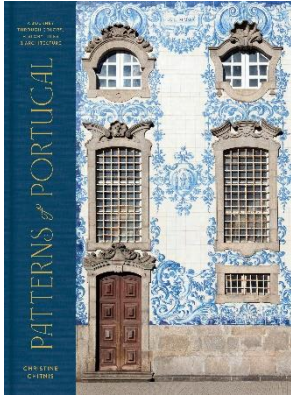

Lana Truitt is rooted in her deep connections to family, church, and community. Her parents moved to New York from Florida in 1957; her mother was a church organist and her father a tailor from a family in Long Island. Although they always managed to work for people like the Roosevelts, Lana says, they didn't have a lot. Still, they looked well put together when they went out, her father especially. "Once my mother started having children—and while the certainty looked good—she was not what my father was. My father remained this person with a suit and ties and a Stetson hat. His shoes were always polished. He was very particular."

The key fall piece in her sense of style, rooted in her life, was the caftan. "I grew up in the Pentecostal church, so for me, it was also theater." Services at Pentecostal churches is energetic and dynamic. Sometimes there's singing and speaking is vigorous. The members believe they are drawn by the power of God and are within them. "If the minister is charismatic, you're not a whole thing going," Lana says, her voice rising with enthusiasm and warmth. "If the choir is really good, they're rocking and rolling. If the organist is energetic, that piece is humming. The others are bouncing around with the big hankies on their uniforms. The deacons are walking down the aisle like they're marching to something, and they're holding those covers, sharply with music, distinctive with their white gloves. They're just all aligned below the pulpit with their capes and their hats."

As Lana notes, many entertainers have borrowed freely from the church for their dramatic performances and styling. Think of James Brown's machine when he sang "Hot Hot, Hot."

PATTERNS OF PORTUGAL: A Journey Through Colors, History, Tiles, and Architecture
by Christine Chitnis

In this gorgeous collection of over 200 photos, photographer and writer Christine Chitnis invites you on a journey through the sun-baked beaches, startling blue waters, fuschia and gold bougainvillea, terracotta-covered buildings, and lush green vineyards of Portugal. From the honeyed fields of Alentejo and sparkling shores of the Algarve to the heart of cosmopolitan Lisbon and verdant valleys of the Douro, Chitnis captures the vibrant colors and unique patterns woven throughout Portugal's culture, history, architecture, and traditions. Organized into five colorful themes--Azul, Sun Bleached, Bougainvillea, Terracotta, and Verde—PATTERNS OF PORTUGAL features well-researched cultural essays that explore the history of azulejos, the colorful ceramic tiles covering much of Portugal's architecture, the intricate embroidered details of traditional lavradeira costumes, and much more.

Christine Chitnis is a writer, photographer, and the author of four books—including PATTERNS OF INDIA. As a contributor to publications including the New York Times, Elle, Martha Stewart Living, Boston Globe, and Condé Nast Traveler, Christine has not only earned a reputation as a multi-talented storyteller, but also as a trusted strategist in the lifestyle publishing sector.

COLTRANE: The Definitive Visual Celebration of the Legend
edited by Ravi Coltrane

The definitive photographic celebration of John Coltrane's life and music, featuring exclusive contributions written by Ravi Coltrane, Wayne Coyne, Dev Hynes, Phil Lesh, Julie Mehretu, Carlos Santana, and Patti Smith.

John Coltrane's impact on music and culture has endured far beyond his prolific career and untimely death in 1967 at age forty. His masterful saxophone style and groundbreaking compositions profoundly affected the evolution of music for decades and continue to resonate across styles and genres to this day. This beautiful photography book offers an intimate and in-depth look at his life with two hundred expertly curated images of the legendary saxophonist and composer. COLTRANE further explores John's musical legacy with an introduction by his son and fellow musician Ravi Coltrane along with stories from other musicians, artists, and writers who have been moved by his work.

COLTRANE is a visual celebration of one of the all-time great musicians, and a must-have for fans of John Coltrane, jazz, and music photography.

Ravi Coltrane is a critically acclaimed Grammy-nominated saxophonist, bandleader, and composer. Born on Long Island, the second son of John Coltrane and Alice Coltrane, Ravi was named after Indian sitar legend Ravi Shankar. He was raised in Los Angeles, where his family moved after his father's death in 1967. Ravi maintains a fast-paced touring, recording, composing, and performance schedule. He leads the effort to restore the John Coltrane Home in Dix Hills, Long Island, and presides over important reissues of his parents' recordings.

WASH DAY: Passing on the Legacy, Rituals, and Love of Natural Hair
 by Tomesha Faxio

In this stunning collection of beautiful photographs and powerful essays, documentary photographer Tomesha Faxio captures the intimate details of “wash day,” a day that Black women set aside to wash, detangle, condition, and style their natural hair. Though wash day is routine practice in Black households, its significance goes far beyond hygiene or self-care. It is an opportunity for Black women to embrace their curly, coily locks and, when they have daughters, pass on this sacred ritual to the next generation. Exploring everything from texturism and hair discrimination to the feeling of not being quite “there” in your natural hair journey, WASH DAY is a visual homage to Black culture, Black rituals, and the generational bonds that strengthen the Black community.

Tomesha Faxio is a self-taught documentary photographer dedicated to portraying and centering the Black experience. She specializes in portraits of Black women and women of color, and wields photography to reject Eurocentric beauty standards and alterations of natural beauty. Her photography has been featured on Parents.com, Jezebel, The Guardian, USA Today, and Forbes.com, as well as in the documentary films Refuge and Love Wins Over Hate.

CORKY LEE'S ASIAN AMERICA: Fifty Years of Photographic Justice
by Corky Lee; edited by Chee Wang Ng and Mae Ngai

Photojournalist Corky Lee documented Asian American and Pacific Islander communities for fifty years, breaking the stereotype of Asian Americans as docile, passive, and, above all, foreign to this country. CORKY LEE'S ASIAN AMERICA is a stunning retrospective of his life's work--a selection of the best photographs from his vast collection, including those he personally chose before he passed in 2021, from his start in New York's Chinatown to his coverage of diverse Asian American communities across the country. Asian American writers, artists, activists, and friends of Lee reflect on their relationship with Lee and provide rich historical and cultural context to his photographs, including a foreword from writer Hua Hsu and essays and contributions from artist Ai Weiwei, filmmaker Renée Tajima-Peña, writer Ken Chen, historian Gordon Chang, playwright David Henry Hwang, and more.

Corky Lee (1947-2021), a native of Queens, New York, was an activist-photographer who documented Asian American communities and movements for social justice for fifty continuous years. Mae Ngai is Lung Family Professor of Asian American Studies and Professor of History at Columbia University. Chee Wang Ng is a New York-based visual artist and photographer with over 30 years of design experience.

AT WIT'S END
by Alen MacWeeney

Releasing in time for the magazine's 100th birthday, this celebratory collection captures the brilliantly quirky personalities behind some of The New Yorker's most iconic cartoons. With stunning photographs by Alen Macweeney and engaging essays by long-time New Yorker contributor Michael Maslin, these pages offer an exclusive peek inside the creative brains of over 50 prominent cartoonists, both seasoned and newly minted. From legends like Roz Chast and Jack Ziegler to contemporaries like Liana Finck and Jeremy Nguyen, this landmark volume is a beautiful homage to the artists who have long brought joy, humor, and satire to our lives.

Alen MacWeeney is an internationally renowned photographer based in New York. His works are featured in the permanent collections of many prominent museums such as MoMA, The Philadelphia Museum of Art, The Art Institute of Chicago, and more, as well as in private collections of institutions such as Columbia University, Boston College, and elsewhere. MacWeeney's collection continues to grow as he continues printing in his personal studio darkroom and photographing in the analog and digital mediums.

UNTITLED 1619 PROJECT BOOK by the New York Times

The groundbreaking 2021 bestseller, THE 1619 PROJECT: A New Origin Story, offers the revolutionary message that our national narrative did not begin on July 4, 1776, as many history books teach—it began in late August of 1619, when a cargo ship of twenty to thirty enslaved people arrived from Africa to the shores of Jamestown, Virginia.

Curated by the editors of The New York Times Magazine, led by Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist Nikole Hannah-Jones, this new, illustrated edition features seven chapters from THE 1619 PROJECT: A New Origin Story, interspersed with beautiful, engaging visuals that deepen the experience of the original book. Filled with original art by Black artists on the themes of resistance and freedom, a brand-new photo essay about slave auction sites, vivid photos of Black Americans celebrating their own forms of patriotism, and a collection of archival images of Black families by Black photographers, this gorgeous volume offers readers a dynamic new way of experiencing the impact of The 1619 Project.

The 1619 Project is an ongoing initiative from The New York Times Magazine that began in August 2019, the 400th anniversary of the beginning of American slavery. It aims to reframe the country's history by placing the consequences of slavery and the contributions of Black Americans at the very center of our national narrative. It is led by Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist Nikole Hannah-Jones, along with New York Times editor-in-chief Jake Silverstein and New York Times Magazine editors Ilena Silverman and Caitlin Roper.

OVERLOOKED: A Celebration of Remarkable, Underappreciated People Who Broke the Rules and Changed the World by Amy Padnani and the New York Times

Since 1851, The New York Times has published thousands of obituaries, but only a fraction of the Times's obits has chronicled the lives of women or people of color. The vast majority tell of the lives of men—mostly white men. OVERLOOKED seeks to rectify this.

Started as a series in the Obituary section, OVERLOOKED revisits the Times's 170-year history to fill in the gaps for people who were, for whatever reason, left out. Featuring contributions by writers such as Susan Dominus, Veronica Chambers, Amanda Hess, Reggie Ugwu, Jon Pareles, and more, it seeks to right the wrongs of the past, establish a new precedent for equitable coverage of lives lost, and refocus society's lens on who it considers worthy of remembrance.

Amisha (Amy) Padnani is an award-winning staff editor at The New York Times and a keynote speaker on topics such as diversity, where she often highlights people who are underrepresented in society. In 2018, she was named Incredible Woman of the Year by Porter Magazine.

The New York Times is a daily newspaper published in New York City and distributed internationally. Founded in 1851, the newspaper has won 122 Pulitzer Prizes, more than any other newspaper.

BEHIND THE SEAMS: My Life in Rhinestones by Dolly Parton, with Holly George-Warren and Rebecca Seaver

“Enriched with insights . . . , this is both a lush visual feast and a testament to the originality and self-possession that made Parton a force to be reckoned with...” -
Publisher’s Weekly

In BEHIND THE SEAMS, global superstar Dolly Parton shares, for the first time, the full story behind her lifelong passion for fashion, including how she developed her own, distinctly Dolly style, which has defied convention and endeared her to fans around the world. Featuring behind-the-scenes stories from Dolly Parton’s life and career, and the largest reveal of her private costume archive, this gorgeously photographed book spotlights her most unforgettable looks from the 1960s to now.

Dolly Parton is the most honored and revered female singer-songwriter of all time. She has garnered eleven Grammy Awards and 51 nominations, including the Lifetime Achievement Award. In 2020, she released the bestselling coffee table book SONGTELLER (Chronicle Books).

Holly George-Warren is the award-winning author of seventeen books, including works on fashion, popular music history, and biographies. Rebecca Seaver is the director of archive services for Dolly Parton, and has curated numerous museum exhibits for the music legend, most notably at Dollywood, the Grand Ole Opry, the Grammy Museum, and the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame.

GARDEN WONDERLAND: Creating Joy, Beauty, and a Sense of Belonging in Your Garden

by Leslie Bennett and Julie Chai

Award-winning garden designer Leslie Bennett creates gardens filled with stunning layers of color and texture. But even more than that, they "feed the eye and nourish the soul" (Elle Decor). Featuring examples from nineteen gardens, Bennett shows how to incorporate personal and edible elements into the landscape to honor a variety of cultures, ancestry, families of all shapes and sizes, memories, and more. With chapters on floral, edible, gathering, healing, and cultural wonderlands, Bennett provides advice for tailoring a garden to your own needs, whether it's a place to host elegant garden parties, for children to play, to grow your own food, or a sanctuary to rest and relax. In GARDEN WONDERLAND, Bennett helps you unlock the potential of your garden to become a space of inspiring natural beauty, abundance, creativity, and meaning.

Leslie Bennett is the owner of Pine House Edible Gardens, a landscape design/build firm based in Oakland, California, and co-author of THE BEAUTIFUL EDIBLE GARDEN (Ten Speed Press, 2013). She is the winner of the American Horticultural Society's award for Landscape Design and her work has been featured in Better Homes & Gardens, Martha Stewart Living, Garden Design, Sunset, American Gardener, Los Angeles Times, San Francisco Chronicle, and Gardenista. Bennett is the founder of Black Sanctuary Gardens, a project that creates spaces of refuge and beauty in collaboration with Black women and communities.

Julie Chai is the former senior garden editor of Sunset Magazine and the editor of FLORET FARM'S DISCOVERING DAHLIAS, FLORET FARM'S A YEAR IN FLOWERS, and FLORET FARM'S CUT FLOWER GARDEN (all published by Floret).

HOME IN BLOOM: Lessons for Creating Floral Beauty in Every Room by Ariella Chezar with Julie Michaels

From small bouquets on the kitchen counter to elaborate arrangements in the living room, flowers can add a touch of elegance and sophistication to any space. Ariella Chezar is the master of creating ambiance and relaxation through flowers and has always incorporated wild elements into her arrangements, whether weeds, branches, or vines rich with berries. While most floral designers begin with the blooms, Ariella takes into consideration the architecture, light and landscape of the environment before choosing any flowers. Each of her arrangements is a layered statement in which fabrics, linens, tableware, and other materials in the room are an integral part of the scene. With chapters separated by themes such as Nourish, Welcome, Inspire, and Wilding, HOME IN BLOOM takes us on a journey through homes and rooms filled with incredible blooms that spark color and light.

Ariella Chezar is the author of THE FLOWER WORKSHOP and FLOWERS FOR THE TABLE and a master floral designer who has appeared in numerous magazines, including Oprah Daily, Martha Stewart Living, and Real Simple.

Julie Michaels coauthored THE FLOWER WORKSHOP, is a former editor for the Boston Globe, and has written for the Wall Street Journal, the New York Times, and more.

THE HOME EDIT: BE YOUR OWN EDITOR!: A Guide to Organizing and Creating Your Happy Place
by Clea Shearer and Joanna Teplin

From the founders of The Home Edit comes a book for middle graders (3rd to 8th graders) teaching them how to keep every space of theirs organized—from the closet and under the bed to the desk, locker, bookbag, and more. Throughout will be engaging content—quizzes, checklists, and rainbowfied inspiration—to help kids create organizational systems and reach their #roomgoals while expressing their budding points of view. The true promise: organizing and maintaining tidy spaces lead to a calmer, more confident kid.

The hosts of ABC's Extreme Makeover: Home Edition, Clea Shearer and Joanna Teplin founded The Home Edit with the goal of merging conventional organization and interior design. With clients all over the country, they offer both full and virtual services through their website. They have also been featured in People, House Beautiful, and Architectural Digest and on Goop, among other places. They are the authors of the New York Times bestseller THE HOME EDIT, THE HOME EDIT LIFE, and THE HOME EDIT: STAY ORGANIZED. Clea and Joanna live with their families in Nashville, Tennessee.

PANTRY PARALYSIS PREVENTION

More than any other space in your house, your pantry requires organizing tools that can make or break the space. Maintaining it is a choose-your-own-adventure process that is one part utility, one part household habits, and one part aesthetics. Pantry paralysis sets in when you set up a system that doesn't take into account these three factors.

If your system is falling apart, take 5 minutes to do a bit of organizing therapy. (i.e., ask yourself who you are as a human being. While they may seem humorous and a bit heavy to take all this on! Philosophy 101, it's just your pantry). Know that the answer to the question will make the following steps that much easier.

After you've taken an honest look at your so far, take an honest look at your space and keep these questions in mind:

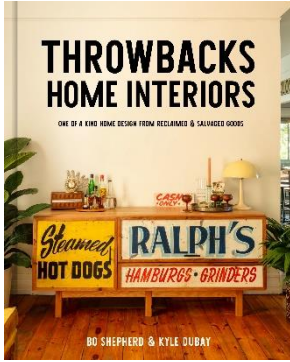

- How big is it?
- Does it have any odd elements, like tricky corners?
- How many shelves do you have?
- What are your shelves made of? How much weight can they hold and, if they are wire, how will you prevent items from falling through?
- Regarding bins, do you want clear, wooden, wire, metal?
- How much backstock do you want and where does it go?

After we worked with the client to answer all of the above, we set to work to create this beauty. We employed a mix of containers—flat plastic containers, round glass containers, decorative woven bins, clear plastic bins, and metal bins. For concealed storage, we kept everything at eye level or lower, generally concealed storage overhead became a great way to store what you've completely forgotten about. And now, excitingly, a sweet snack station in the back creates a beautiful focal point for the whole party (and focal points are excellent for maintenance because you will always want to keep that area looking nice).

THROWBACKS HOME INTERIORS: One of a Kind Home Design from Reclaimed and Salvaged Goods
by Bo Shepherd and Kylie Dubay

Fans of historic details and homes with a story, the Woodward Throwbacks offer plenty of inspiration for reusing, restyling, and elevating items that you find or love, matching modern with antique for a home that is stylish and personal. Each chapter showcases different projects, providing inspiration for incorporating salvage materials into your home in new ways--whether it's original hardware added to new windows and doors or marble remnants turned into a showstopping kitchen counter. Along the way, authors Bo Shepherd and Kyle Dubay give readers the tools to bring that unique style home.

Bo Shepherd and Kyle Dubay are the founders and owners of Woodward Throwbacks, a Detroit-based furniture and design company that creates original products using reclaimed and recycled materials.

COLORFUL LIVING
by Rachel Mae Smith

Color can influence your feelings, affect your moods, control how you interact with your home, and even change how you feel about yourself. In COLORFUL LIVING, writer, photographer, and the nation's biggest color enthusiast Rachel Mae Smith explains why color is so powerful and how you can use it to create a vibrant living space, a wardrobe you not only love but also look amazing wearing, and a life filled with wonder. After a fascinating (and painless!) introduction to color theory, Rachel takes you step by step through your home (walls, furniture, decor, art), your closet (clothing, jewelry, shoes, accessories), and other aspects of your world sharing simple, creative, and fun ways to add pops of your favorite colors everywhere.

Rachel Mae Smith is the author of The Crafted Life blog and the book HELLO COLOR. Her work has been featured in HGTV Magazine, Better Homes & Gardens, and Good Housekeeping, and on Today.com, Apartment Therapy, Refinery 29, BuzzFeed, Domino, and more. One of Pinterest's most promising creators in 2022, she has consulted with brands including West Elm, Michaels, Lowe's, Marie Kondo + The Container Store, Rit Dye, and HP, among others.

MAYA ANGELOU: A WRITER'S JOURNAL
by Caged Bird Legacy LLC

Building on the rich legacy of Dr. Angelou's publishing catalog, this blank journal--sprinkled with the wit and wisdom of Maya Angelou throughout--offers readers and fans new ways to celebrate one of America's literary heroes and enjoy her words of wisdom, inspiration, encouragement, and empowerment.

The journal will include powerful statements from her essay collections like, "What you're supposed to do when you don't like a thing is change it. If you can't change it, change the way you think about it. Don't complain." And readers will be prompted along their own journeys through affirmations from her most famous poems, like, "I am a woman phenomenally; phenomenal woman--that's me."

Whether you're taking notes at church, capturing some key information while on the go, or just meditating through scribbling on the page, this guide will inspire you whenever you open its pages, with Dr. Angelou encouraging you as you go.

THE FOREVER JOURNAL
by Ashley Sirah Chea

There is so much beauty in telling your own story. After author and lifestyle blogger Ashley Sirah Chea's sister passed away, she discovered that her young nephew became increasingly curious about the mother that he never got to know. Though she shared her sister's stories with him to the best of her ability, she was constantly aware that he would never get to hear them in his mother's own words. This experience inspired her to create THE FOREVER JOURNAL, a beautiful opportunity for parents and grandparents to write their own legacy and offer their families connection and comfort for years to come.

Through a series of prompts, parents will capture the stories of their lives, sharing memories and advice about growing up, finding love, nurturing friendships, becoming a parent, figuring out a career path, and so much more. With gorgeous illustrations, space to add photographs and letters, and a gusseted pocket to include even more memories, THE FOREVER JOURNAL is a written memento that families can cherish generation after generation.

Ashley Sirah Chea is a writer, former professional ballerina, and mother whose life has always prioritized the arts. With the success of her debut self-published children's book BEAUTIFUL BEAUTIFUL ME, Ashley looks forward to creating more books that encourage a love of self, others, and community.

Q&A A DAY FOR ENLIGHTENMENT: A Journal
by Deepak Chopra

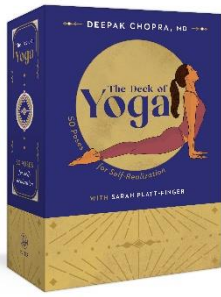

In Potter's hugely successful Q&A A DAY journal format, here are 365 searching, thoughtful questions from Deepak Chopra, the founding father of meditation and spiritual exploration in America. As you respond to his daily questions you will gain self-knowledge and chart emotional, psychological, and spiritual growth over three years of your life in the simplest way possible. Start at any point in the year. When you finish the year, begin again on day one in next section on the page. As the years go by you'll notice how your answers change (or don't). The questions have been developed to encourage you to look inside, dig down deep, and explore what makes you you.

ASTROLOGY OF YOU AND ME ORACLE DECK: 72 Cards to Understand and Improve Your Relationships
by Gary Goldschneider; Illustrated by Camille Chew

A companion to the bestselling book THE ASTROLOGY OF YOU AND ME (Quirk Publishing), this oracle deck of 72 illustrated cards describes six archetypes—the romantic partner, the ex, the friend, the parent, the coworker, the competitor—within each of the twelve Zodiac signs. With multiple ways to read the cards, this deck offers more than just one method of insight.

The companion guidebook offers ways to use the deck as an oracle, including providing instructions for interpreting cards singularly or in a spread. It also includes nuanced descriptions of each sign's archetypes to enhance your card reading.

Whether you're struggling to understand a break-up, looking to forge new alliances at work, or wanting to reconnect with an old friend, let the universe guide you as you explore how the stars impact every aspect of your relationships.

Gary Goldschneider was a best-selling author of personology and astrology books. He studied astrology for forty years and frequently lectured and wrote on the subject. An accomplished pianist and composer, he performed in concerts and recitals worldwide. He lived in Amsterdam.

NEW YORK BOTANICAL GARDEN WILDFLOWER IDENTIFICATION FLASHCARDS: 100 Common Wildflowers of North America by The New York Botanical Garden

Do you know when to look for the first blooms of Wild Columbine? Can you tell a yucca from an agave based on their flowers? If you, like millions of others, love to seek out new flowers in the wild, these flashcards will be your perfect knowledge builder and outdoor companion. On each card you'll find:

- a detailed illustration of a common North American wildflower
- the flower's popular and Latin name
- information on habitat, flowering season, range, and conservation.

Whether you're a new explorer or a perennial wildflower hunter, NEW YORK BOTANICAL GARDEN WILDFLOWER IDENTIFICATION FLASHCARDS will make it easy to identify your floral findings. The laminated cards easily wipe clean after a romp through the meadows and the convenient size makes it easy to slip a few into a pocket or toss the whole deck into a backpack. You can also use the cards to sharpen your skills before the flowers start blooming or just enjoy the exquisite artwork from the archives of the New York Botanical Gardens.

The New York Botanical Garden is an iconic living museum founded in 1891. It is a National Historic Landmark, with 250 acres supporting over one million living plants. Each year more than one million visitors walk the grounds to enjoy the remarkable diversity of tropical, temperate, and desert flora and to attend beloved annual events such as The Holiday Train Show and The Orchid Show.

THIS WILD AND PRECIOUS LIFE: A Journal by Mary Oliver

"What is it you plan to do with your one wild and precious life?"

Simple, direct, and profoundly feeling, Mary Oliver touched countless readers with her tender, accessible verse, expressing her love for the physical world and the powerful bonds between all living things. Her poems deftly weave close observations of nature with an evergreen state of wonder, and her essays about the craft of writing are remarkable for their intelligent yet comprehensive advice.

Oliver is a perennial touchstone for writers and nature lovers. Here for the first time is a journal that invites you to actively engage with her poetry. Flip from page to page to find a comforting, inspiring, or challenging quote from one of her poems, with an occasional poem reprinted in its entirety. With delightful nature drawings appearing alongside Oliver's celebrated verse, this journal readers them an opportunity, for the first time, to engage personally in a written conversation with the beloved poet, page by page.

Born in a small town in Ohio, Mary Oliver published her first book of poetry in 1963 at the age of 28. Over the course of her long career, she received numerous awards. Her fourth book, American Primitive, won the Pulitzer Prize for Poetry in 1984. She led workshops and held residencies at various colleges and universities, including Bennington College, where she held the Catharine Osgood Foster Chair for Distinguished Teaching. She died in 2019.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR LIVING: A Deck of Daily Devotions
by Mary Oliver

Instructions for living a life:

Pay attention.

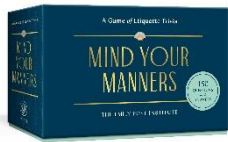

Be astonished.

Tell about it.

Mary Oliver touched countless readers with her tender, accessible poetry, expressing her love for the physical world and the powerful bonds between all living things. This deck of fifty inspirational quotes, all pulled from Oliver's oeuvre, offer bite-sized pieces of life advice—from simple directives like "as long as you are dancing, you can break the rules," to the entirety of her ode to interpretations of heaven, "Yellow." "Come to the pond," she implores, "and live your life." Pull a card each morning for daily reflection, or hang a card on your fridge for a week, returning again and again to the simple insight of Oliver's words.

With delightful nature drawings appearing alongside Oliver's celebrated verses, INSTRUCTIONS FOR LIVING provides readers an intimate opportunity to engage with Mary Oliver's inspiring words, day after day.

MIND YOUR MANNERS: A Game of Etiquette by Lizzie Post and Daniel Post Senning

Test your etiquette knowledge with this sometimes silly but always polite trivia game from the Emily Post Institute.

Good manners are about making people feel comfortable, and MIND YOUR MANNERS rewards those who know how to put others at ease with their courteous actions. With guidance taken directly from The Emily Post Institute, this game is the final say in how to behave politely—and the winner takes all. An enclosed booklet instructs how to organize a trivia night for two or more competitors and play in rounds for points. Or simply leave the cards out as conversation starters at your next get-together or dinner party to see who is the most gracious among you. For those who aren't so sure, well, this game will teach them to mind their manners.

Lizzie Post and Daniel Post Senning are the great-great-grandchildren of Emily Post. They co-host the Emily Post Institute's Awesome Etiquette podcast, co-authored current and past editions of EMILY POST'S ETIQUETTE, and share etiquette advice across the country and around the world.

WATERSHIP DOWN: The Graphic Novel
by Richard Adams; Adapted and illustrated by James Sturm and Joe Sutphin

“This action-packed graphic adaptation... of Adams’s epic novel maintains the existential gravitas of the original while artistically rendering its wild English countryside and memorable cohort of lean, scrappy rabbits... The art manages to be both melancholic and dynamic, just like the tone of Adams’s novel. Sturm and Sutphin effectively convey a world as fraught and complicated as the human realm, yet entirely its own.” – Publishers Weekly

WATERSHIP DOWN is a classic tale of survival, hope, courage, and friendship that has delighted and inspired readers around the world for fifty years. Masterfully adapted by award-winning author James Sturm and gorgeously illustrated by bestselling artist Joe Sutphin, this spectacular graphic novel will delight old fans and inspire new ones, bringing the joy of WATERSHIP DOWN to the next generation of readers.

Richard Adams, an English veteran of World War II, originally told the story of WATERSHIP DOWN to his two daughters, who insisted he publish it as a book. It became an instant classic, selling over a million copies in both the United Kingdom and the United States and winning both the Carnegie Medal and the Guardian Children's Fiction Prize in 1972.

James Sturm’s graphic novels include OFF SEASON, THE GOLEM’S MIGHTY SWING, and MARKET DAY. Joe Sutphin is an illustrator of books for kids such as Andrew Peterson’s Wingfeather Saga (WaterBrook).

ADVOCATE: A Graphic Memoir
by Eddie Ahn

A moving graphic memoir following Eddie Ahn, an environmental justice lawyer and activist, as he strives to unify his San Francisco community amidst environmental catastrophes, health scares, an accelerating tide of racial and economic injustice, and his own self-doubt.

Fully written and drawn by Eddie himself, this powerful, deeply contemplative full-color graphic novel explores the relationship between immigration and activism, opportunity and obligation, and being a good son and a good person. Weaving together humorous anecdotes with moments of victory and hope, ADVOCATE reveals how to live not just a successful life, but a meaningful one.

Eddie Ahn is a nonprofit attorney and executive director of Brightline Defense, a San Francisco-based environmental justice nonprofit. He is the president of the SF Commission on the Environment and in 2021 was inducted into the State of California’s Clean Energy Hall of Fame for his work in equity and clean energy. In addition to his nonprofit work, he is a self-taught artist who has been recognized as a Cartoonist-in-Residence by the Charles M. Schulz Museum in Santa Rosa.

LEGENDS & LATTES: THE GRAPHIC NOVEL
by Travis Baldree

After a lifetime of bounties and bloodshed, Viv is hanging up her sword for the last time.

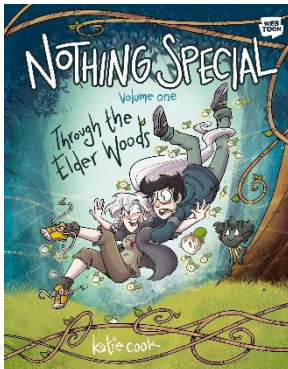

The battle-weary orc aims to start fresh, opening the first-ever coffee shop in the city of Thune. But old and new rivals stand in the way of success—not to mention the fact that no one has the faintest idea what coffee actually is.

If Viv wants to put the blade behind her and make her plans a reality, she won't be able to go it alone. After all, true rewards of the uncharted path are the travelers you meet along the way. And whether drawn together by ancient magic, flaky pastry, or a freshly brewed cup, they may become partners, family, and something deeper than she ever could have dreamed.

This full color graphic novel adaptation brings the high fantasy and low stakes of this beloved story to vibrant life as its never been seen before.

Volume 2 is planned for Spring 2025.

Travis Baldree is a full-time audiobook narrator who has lent his voice to hundreds of stories. Before that, he spent decades designing and building video games like Torchlight, Rebel Galaxy, and Fate. Apparently, he now also writes books. He lives in the Pacific Northwest with his very patient family and their small, nervous dog.

NOODLES, RICE, AND EVERYTHING SPICE: A Thai Comic Book Cookbook
 by Mallika Kauppinen; Illustrated by Christina de Witte

From an exciting all-female, all-Thai book team, NOODLES, RICE, AND EVERYTHING SPICE combines easy-to-follow comic book panels with pops of vibrant food photography to perfectly capture the bright, colorful flavors and ingredients that are crucial to Thai cuisine. Recipes include world-class favorites such as Som Tam (papaya salad), Satay Gai (grilled chicken skewers), and Pad Kee Mao (“drunken noodles”), as well as some lesser-known regional favorites such as Pad Sator (“stir-fried bitter beans”) from the south and Nam Prik Ong (“Ong’s spicy pork and tomato chile dip”) from the north.

In celebration of the warm, welcoming spirit of Thailand, NOODLES, RICE, AND EVERYTHING SPICE shares the secrets to making these dynamic Thai dishes at home, whether as a quick one-plate meal or a showstopping spread of multiple dishes for enjoying communally.

Mallika Kauppinen grew up in a remote area of southern Thailand where cooking was a huge part of her life. She now teaches Finnish and Thai online and has founded her own education company.

Christina de Witte, also known by her illustrator alias chrostin, is a Thai Belgian cartoonist and the author of THE ULTIMATE SURVIVAL GUIDE TO BEING A GIRL.

LION OF JUDAH: A GRAPHIC NOVELby M. Menelik Makhar

LION OF JUDAH is the graphic novel story of Bob Marley's early life and origins as an artist and musical prophet. The book juxtaposes Marley's personal history with stories of H.I.M. Haile Selassie I, the former emperor of Ethiopia and Marley's self-proclaimed "Spiritual Father," and Kwame Nkrumah, the first president of an independent Ghana, the country of Marley's family ancestry. LION OF JUDAH—named for the prominent symbol of the Rastafari movement—weaves together the seminal moments of these three timelines through an anthology-style artistic collaboration of an international all-star team of comic artists including Damien Hill, Massimiliano Veltri, Will Rosado, N. Steven Harris, Christopher "ChrisCross" Williams, and Eric Battle among others.

This full-color, immersive visual reading experience is the untold story of Bob Marley, a comprehensive history of Reggae music, and an insightful examination of music, spirituality, and politics. LION OF JUDAH depicts the enduring lessons of struggles, triumph, and tragedy that connect us all.

M. Menelik Makhar is an acclaimed activist, songwriter/ghostwriter, and musician.

CASTLE SWIMMER, VOLUME 1by Wendy Martin

From the moment Kappa tumbles into existence on the ocean floor, his life's purpose is already decided for him: He is the Beacon, a light to all sea creatures, and destined to fulfill their many prophesies. In high demand and under immense pressure, Kappa quickly realizes that fame and glory are small compensation for a life of predetermined self-sacrifice.

Unable to resist the call of destiny due to a magical yellow cord that appears from his chest and pulls him inexorably to any sea creatures he swims by—Kappa ultimately finds himself drawn to the Shark kingdom, where he is immediately imprisoned. The Sharks' prophecy states that the curse maiming their people will only be lifted once their prince, Siren, kills the Beacon. But when Prince Siren decides to defy fate and help Kappa escape, Kappa realizes that there might be more to life than fulfilling endless prophesies, leading to a raucous adventure as big and unpredictable as the ocean itself—and a romance that nobody could have predicted.

The first half of Webtoon's Castle Swimmer Season 1 (291.8M views, 2.8M followers) is collected in this stunning graphic novel, which also includes a never-before-seen bonus chapter featuring Kappa and Siren.

Wendy Martin is the creator of Webtoon's Castle Swimmer. She currently resides in Seattle, Washington.

MRBALLEN PRESENTS: THE GRAPHIC STORIESby MrBallen

John Allen, known popularly as “MrBallen,” has been enthralling audiences with his unique brand of storytelling ever since he burst onto the scene in 2020, covering strange and mysterious phenomena ranging from the unexplained screaming heard in parts of Nahanni Valley, The Kandahar Giant found in Afghanistan, UFOs appearing at a cattle ranch in Utah, and Allen’s own brush with the paranormal. Deeply researched and seriously compelling, the podcast rapidly gained a devoted fanbase for the raconteur himself and for the rarely-before-covered occurrences that have taken place throughout the world.

Allen reveals the creepy underbelly of the human experience, charting bizarre and downright terrifying instances of the paranormal. A collaboration with New York Times graphic novelist Robert Venditti and appropriately acclaimed comic book artist Andrea Mutti, MRBALLEN PRESENTS: THE GRAPHIC STORIES is a haunting collection filled with twists and surprises that will leave the reader thoroughly spooked.

John B. Allen is a former US Navy Seal, the founder of the multi-platform content company Ballen Studios, and the creator and host of the popular true crime podcast MrBallen Podcast: Strange, Dark, & Mysterious Stories.

Robert Venditti is a New York Times bestselling author of more than three hundred comic books and graphic novels. Some of his works include the monthly comic book series Justice League and Superman, his own graphic novel Six Days, and he adapted Rick Riordan’s Percy Jackson and the Olympians and more.

SUITOR ARMOR, VOLUME 1

by Purpah

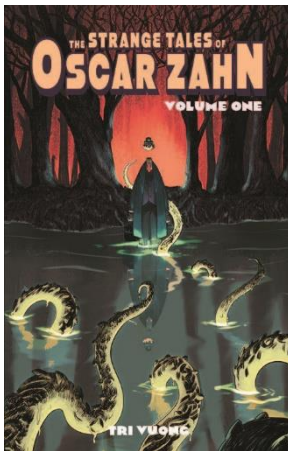

Set in a fantasy realm where humans and fairies are at war, Lady Kirsi and her longtime lady-in-waiting Lucia prepare for Kirsi's upcoming wedding to King Reimund.

The two attend a royal tournament that calls together all of the kingdom's brave knights for a competition of strength and wit, and it is here that Lucia's time at court takes a dazzling turn. A magically animated suit of armor, brought to life by Norrix the court mage's complicated enchantment spell, enters the ring and challenges the winning knight. Lucia takes interest in the character and names him Mobeus--the two develop an unlikely yet thrilling connection, bonded by their status as outcasts within the kingdom.

The truth is, Lucia is hiding a dangerous secret about her own identity. She is the enemy: a fairy. She fears being exposed to the whole human kingdom, but she desperately desires to learn more about herself--especially now that a new winged visitor who has infiltrated the castle walls for reasons still unknown...

Complete with content exclusive to the book, this first volume of the greatly successful Suitor Armor series (114M views on Webtoon and 1.5M followers) sets the stage for a multitude of adventures in magic, mystery, fantasy creatures, friendship, self-discovery, romance, and more!

THE STRANGE TALES OF OSCAR ZAHN, VOLUME 1

by Tri Vuong

Oscar Zahn is just like any other paranormal investigator—he's working hard to make the world a better place, one exorcism at a time. So what if he's just a floating skull wearing a trench coat? He's still got a heart of gold!

In this first installment of the online webcomic sensation THE STRANGE TALES OF OSCAR ZAHN, join Oscar and his mysterious assistant Agnes as they embark on a terrifying yet heartwarming journey across Europe, rescuing lost souls and solving spooky mysteries. Their travels take them across great distances and even through time, as Oscar sleuths out why the spirits he contends with are restless and malcontent. Yet the more mysteries he solves, the clearer it becomes that there's a greater game afoot, one that involves Oscar's own forgotten origin story.

Readers will love this beautifully illustrated paranormal graphic novel from Tri Vuong, the beloved creator of Webtoon's THE STRANGE TALES OF OSCAR ZAHN.

Tri Vuong is a comic artist and writer based out of Toronto, Canada. BIG JIM AND THE WHITE BOY

by David F. Walker; Illustrated by Marcus Kwame Anderson

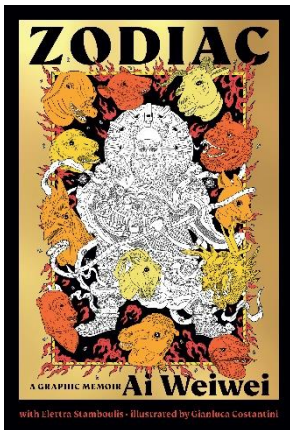

Commonly regarded as one of the great American novels, THE ADVENTURES OF HUCKLEBERRY FINN has captured the hearts and imaginations of readers since 1885. But since its publication, readers and critics have rightfully condemned Mark Twain's troubling portrayal of Black Americans as stereotypes and caricatures, with contemporary fans searching for a modern update to this classic tale.

BIG JIM AND THE WHITE BOY is a reimagining of this American classic, centering the experiences of Jim, an enslaved Black man in search of his kidnapped wife and children, and his cheeky sidekick, Huckleberry Finn. Heartfelt and deeply moving, the story takes readers on a journey through Jim and Huck's past, present, and future, delving into their incredible friendship and years of adventures—a bond that transcends the gruesome racism of the Antebellum South.

With compelling artwork and riveting storytelling from the team behind the Eisner award-winning The Black Panther Party, David F. Walker and Marcus Kwame Anderson push the boundaries of THE ADVENTURES OF HUCKLEBERRY FINN, exploring the triumphs and tribulations of Jim and his family.

David F. Walker is an award-winning comic book writer, author, filmmaker, journalist, and educator. His work in comic books includes Shaft, winner of the Glyph Award for Story of the Year. He is also the creator of the critically-acclaimed YA series The Adventures of Darius Logan and the author of the Eisner-winning THE BLACK PANTHER PARTY and BITTER ROOT.

Marcus Kwame Anderson is an illustrator and fine artist. Anderson is the Eisner-winning co-creator of THE BLACK PANTHER PARTY.

ZODIAC: A Graphic Memoir
by Ai Weiwei; Illustrated by Gianluca Costantini

In this beautifully illustrated and deeply philosophical graphic memoir, legendary artist Ai Weiwei explores the connection between artistic expression and intellectual freedom through the lens of the Chinese zodiac.

Inspired by the twelve signs of the Chinese zodiac and their associated human characteristics, Ai Weiwei masterfully interweaves ancient Chinese folklore with stories of his life, family, and career, in collaboration with Italian comic artist, Gianluca Costantini. The narrative shifts back and forth through the years mirroring memory and our relationship to time. As readers delve deeper into the beautifully illustrated pages of ZODIAC, they will find not only a personal history of Ai Weiwei—and modern China—but a philosophical exploration of what it means to find oneself through art and freedom of expression.

Ai Weiwei is one of the world's most important living artists. His political activism has long made him a target of the Chinese authorities, culminating in months of secret detention without charge in 2011. He is the author of the narrative memoir 1000 YEARS OF JOYS AND SORROWS.

Gianluca Costantini is an Italian cartoonist, comic journalist, and activist. He has contributed to numerous publications, including CNN, France's Le Monde, Italy's Internazionale, and Words Without Borders.

THE COMIC BOOK HISTORY OF THE COCKTAIL

by David Wondrich; Illustrated by Dean Kotz

In THE COMIC BOOK HISTORY OF THE COCKTAIL, Wondrich teams up with comics artist Dean Kotz to trace the evolution of the cocktail. Beginning with the earliest days of wassail and hypocras (mixed drinks based on wine and beer) they narrate a tumultuous and vibrant history.

With 35 recipes, including a Caipirinha, Purl Royal, Gin Cock-Tail, Julep, Sherry Cobbler, New York Sour, Blue Blazer, Jet Pilot, Dim Bulb, Suffering Bastard, Pina Colada, French 75, and Mai Tai; a step-by-step guide to mixing ten essential drinks; and plenty of stories that have never been properly told, this spirited account combines the good, the bad, and the boozy in one lively and jam-packed tale.

Historian and senior drinks columnist for the Daily Beast, David Wondrich is one of the driving forces behind the early 21st century revival in the classic American art of mixing drinks. A former English professor with a PhD in comparative literature, he is the award-winning author of IMBIBE, PUNCH, and the OXFORD COMPANION TO SPIRITS AND COCKTAILS and was the resident drinks expert and columnist at Esquire for nearly 17 years.

Originally from Northeastern Pennsylvania, Dean Kotz studied Painting at West Chester University and has been working professionally in comics since 2009.

LORE & LEGENDS: A Visual Celebration of the Fifth Edition of the World's Greatest Roleplaying Game (Dungeons & Dragons)

By Kyle Newman, Jon Peterson, Michael Witwer, and Sam Witwer

LORE & LEGENDS is an illustrated guide to Dungeons & Dragons' beloved fifth edition told through interviews, artwork, and visual ephemera from the designers, storytellers, and creators who bring it to life.

When the reimagined fifth edition of Dungeons & Dragons debuted in the summer of 2014, tabletop roleplaying games were on the brink of obsolescence. But within a few short years, D&D found greater success than it ever enjoyed before, even surpassing its 1980s Golden Age. How did an analog game nearly a half-century old become a star in a digital world? For the first time, LORE & LEGENDS reveals the incredible ongoing story of Dungeons & Dragons fifth edition from the perspective of the designers, creators, and players who bring it to life. This comprehensive visual guide illuminates contemporary D&D—its development, evolution, cultural relevance, and popularity—through exclusive interviews and more than 900 pieces of artwork, photography, and advertising curated and analyzed by the authors of the bestselling and Hugo-nominated ART & ARCANA.

Dungeons & Dragons launched the great tradition of roleplaying games in 1974 with an unprecedented mix of adventure and strategy, dice-rolling, and storytelling. Wizards of the Coast continues to honor that tradition, bringing to market a diverse range of D&D game and entertainment experiences.
